CARD OF THANKS

We would like to extend our thanks to the Colt Football Program for the wonderful experience they helped provide for our son Jake during this past season. As parents we appreciated the time and effort of coaches and those who volunteered their time to create a such a positive experience for our local youth! Jake is excited to play middle school football next year and while he won't be joining the ranks for the Mustangs he has created many friendships. Special thanks to Adam Doherty, Mike Doherty, Kelly Fox, Robert Whalen, Jason Hanna, Damon Brosnan, Jodi Ferguson and Greg Grant especially for all of their work.

Sincerely,
Deacon & Erin Heideman

The Ione Lexington Cemetery District would like to thank Sheriff Matlack and the Morrow County Sheriff's Office for providing the district with a couple extra workers during the spring and summer months to help the cemetery's Sexton to clean up the local cemeteries. We greatly appreciated the help.

Thank you!
The Board of Directors,

Though it seems inadequate, thank you for the caring and help received during my recent accident.

Thank you to some very special Lexington neighbors - you were there all the way. And to so many friends and special people from Heppner.

A huge thanks to the Heppner Elks Lodge for the dinner and drive they sponsored. You helped a bad situation become tolerable. Elks truly care and share.

I could not start to name you all, but I thank you with all of my heart. You are great and I love you all.

NOTICES

To the lowlife that stole an elk hunter's pitched 12x14 tent. You are what is scraped off the bottom of ones boot. I wish you a wet bed roll and a cold camp fire. Not to mention a punctured, empty gas tank.
Hunter's beware! This type of person will take your hanging meat and trophy antlers. Most likely, they have poached already!
