Columbia - Blue Senior Golfers Complete Season

During this past golfing season, 28 men from Willow Creek Country Club participated in the golf tournaments of the Columbia - Blue Senior Golf Association (CBSGA). The tournaments are held on the second Monday of the month from April through October. Willow Creek has the most players in the association of nearly 150 golfers from 13 golf courses ranging from Beacon Rock to Milton-Freewater. The Willow Creek golfers garnered the most points for the season with Barry

Munkers, Al Scott, and Earl Fishburn in the top three places.

Senior golfers over the age of 50 with full membership in Willow Creek Country Club, a current USGA/OGA handicap index, and payment of the annual membership fee are eligible to participate in the activities of the Columbia - Blue Senior Golf Association. Interested senior golfers may contact John Edmundson, 541-676-5177, to learn more about the CBSGA and sign up to play in the CBSGA tournaments.

OES to hold music festival

Oregon East Symphony and Chorale invites the public to celebrate the spirit of the season with their annual Holiday Music Festival. General admission tickets may be purchased at pre-concert discount rates of $12 adults, $7 seniors and students by visiting the OES Office at 345 SW 4th Street (lower level of the Vert building) or at Armchair Books, Pendleton.

Tickets will be available at the door for $15 adult and $10 seniors and students. Audience members are invited to enjoy holiday refreshments following the concert in the Vert Club Room.

This year's festival, sponsored by St. Anthony Hospital, will feature nearly 200 musicians from several community choirs. The Oregon East Symphony Chorale, under the direction of Justin Raffa, Sherwood and McKay Children's Choir, directed by Cheryl Carlson, Pendleton Men's Chorus under the direction of Bill Mayclin, and Sisters in Song directed by Lezlee Flagg, will provide diverse as well as traditional holiday music. The vocal choirs will be joined by Christmas Bells Handbell Choir directed by Annette Matlock. Randy Thomas, accompanied by Sue Nelson will lead the "Carol Sing" between choir performances.
