CARD OF THANKS

The Artifactory Holiday Craft Fair for 2012 is over and the Senior Center wants to thank all of those who helped make it a success. It takes many volunteer hours to put this together each year and is the major fund raiser for the Heppner Senior Center.

First thank you to all of the vendors who participated in this event. Without you there would be no Artifactory! Thanks to Pete Schwarzin, Gary Jones, Dan Brosnan, Leland Robison, Merle Cowett, Mick Kendall and Tom Wilson for moving the round tables and chairs out of the dining room, setting up the long tables for the event and taking them down afterwards. Thank you to the Catholic Church for the tables we borrowed when we had more vendors than we had tables! Thank you to John and Nancy Gochnauer for preparing and serving the food that we sold and to Pete, Anna, Gary and Frances for taking the money. This is really a joint effort of all of the Senior Board members in the organization of this event. The board consists of Pete Schwarzin, Tom Wilson, Judy Buschke, Florene Robinson, Gary Jones, John Gochnauer, and Frances Dion.

of Sheryll Bates, Director of Chamber of Commerce for her constant reminder that the Artifactory was coming up!

We sold raffle tickets on 2, 4 1/2 pound Prime Rib Roasts and the winners were Diana Ball and Scott Sherer. Congratulations!! Thanks to all who bought tickets for this raffle.

All in all this was the most successful fund raiser we have had and God willing we will do this again next year, same time, same place so mark your calendars. The Senior Center and the vendors appreciate the public support of this event.

Thanks to all of you who attended the estate sale of Ruby Pennington last Saturday in Ione. It was a great success. A special thank you to the ladies of the Victorian Rose, Ina Peterson and Laurel Cannon for advice on pricing and set-up. Another special thank you to those of you who made generous donations.
