CARD OF THANKS

After Heppner's recent annual Town & Country celebration and receiving Woman of the Year award, I'm sure I slept with my eyes wide open that night. One can only imagine how they think they will feel if they should ever win such a prestigious award. For me, my heart wanted to jump right out of my skin from beating so hard. (I was glad to see a doctor in the house because I came close to needing one.) I couldn't sleep a wink that night as the evening's events went around in my mind, over & over. Then, of course, I got a case of the "I should've said." Bill Kuhn said they like to "blind-side" the recipient. Well done, committee members! It certainly happened to me. As a transplant to this area, as my boss Jeff Bailey, readily reported, Denny & I have been warmly received and it's just darn nice to be thought of as useful and talented and that is so appreciated.

And speaking of Denny, I'd like to thank that husband of mine. Whatever community event I've been involved in, his expertise with hammer, saw, or design has often saved my bacon when I thought I had a good idea but was going at it all the wrong way. As for all the compliments I received for my ability to throw a few costumes together for community or high school plays, how could I not love to be thanked for a passion of mine. And again, I thank my Denny for often being a "mannequin" for some of those costume creations.

If Clint Eastwood stared me down and asked me "Do you feel lucky? Well, do ya, Punkette?" I would definitely have to say, "Yes, yes I do!" I landed in this community by seriously devoted & caring community members and along the way, I found loyal and amazing friends & cohorts - that says lucky to me. So, thank you to all the nominators and their "You made my eyes water" nomination letters. Thank you, Jeff, for the charming speech and to Bank of Eastern Oregon for all that work you give me, day in, day out, week after week, month after month...gee, it's fun to go to work every day at a place where you are appreciated. Thank you to all my co-workers for giving me the best congratulatory celebration day after. And, thank you, Heppner, for this remarkable award from the bottom of my still-pounding heart.

Babette Wall
And P.S. to Joe Lindsay:
You put the icing on the cake! Thank you for singing those ditties for each of us

We would like to take this moment to thank all the volunteer firefighters for helping after the recent fire we had on December 28, 2012. A big thank you to whomever was saving all the pictures off the walls that could be saved. Thanks to family, friends, neighbors, Lexington, Heppner, and lone folks for pulling together and giving such important items to us, clothing, food, furniture, sewing machine, coats, money, etc. Much thoughtfulness. We enjoy small towns and plan on staying.

The family of Jean Ann Turner would like to thank everyone who reached out to us during this difficult time. Thank you for the flowers you sent, the food you brought and the ladies who served us lunch. The kind words received in cards and in person gave us strength. Fr. Condon you bring such comfort and always make us smile, we love you. Pat Sweeney, you are amazing and always going above & beyond.

The response to her passing confirmed what we already knew, she was a beautiful lady who touched many, and will be greatly missed. Shelly, Lori, Missy and Sandi say... "God bless you all." xo

I would like to thank Pastor Katy Anderson for her loving care and lovely

service for Dean at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Rick Drake for providing the music, Lance Gilman for delivering the eulogy, Pat and Trisha Sweeney of Sweeney Mortuary for the kindness and the professionalism they put into the funeral arrangements, those who presented the military graveside service, Willow creek Terrace, Pioneer Memorial Hospice and the doctors, nurses and staff at Pioneer Memorial for the care they gave Dean. Thanks to Marcia and Charlie Anderson, who organized the delicious luncheon and the members of All Saints' who helped and provided food: Patricia Givens, Susie and Brian Thompson, Travis Greenup, Suzanne and Bob Jepsen, Jackie Allstott, Patti Allstott, George Nairns, Willow Creek Terrace, Merlin and Claudia Hughes, Barb Orwick, Dave and Neva DeMayo, April Sykes, Cyde Estes and Pat Edmundson. Thanks also to those who donated to Willow Creek Terrace, All Saints and Pioneer Memorial Hospice in Dean's name and to everyone who sent flowers, donations and for all the kind phone calls, cards, thoughts and prayers. You made, a difficult time much easier.
