CARD OF THANKS

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus,

Thank you so much for all the warm, comfortable and fashionable winter coats you brought to Heppner Elementary School during Christmas. I wish we could have taken some pictures of those smiling faces as they put on those coats. We knew that each coat was specifically chosen with a certain student in mind, because each one was exactly what the student wanted! The coats not only warmed their bodies, but their hearts as well! As each student left the school with their fine-looking coats, the staff thanked the anonymous supporters who made those smiles possible. Thank you again for your incredible generosity.

Dear Mrs. Claus,
I am not sure how you found the time to make 21 sets of slippers, scarves, hats, and mittens during the Christmas season! I am also not sure how you found out the favorite colors and sizes of those lucky students who needed those gifts. I am wondering if your elves helped with the investigation of sizes and colors of the students. I am also wondering if your elves helped with the knitting. That seems like a lot of "knit one pearl two"!
