Tamales and enchiladas were on the menu March 9 when the Fab Four Foods Group met at the home of Obdulia Medina. The group made two pans of enchiladas using red sauce, one with pork and the other with chicken. The group learned that enchiladas can also be made with green sauce. They learned to make Masa and the sauce for Tamales as well as how to roll it in corn husks. Tamales can be made with a variety of fillings including vegetables and cheese and there is even dessert tamale traditionally served at the holidays. The group thanked Obdulina Medina, Gloria Juarez and Stephanie Medina for their help and guidance.

Banks take top ribbons

The following were named winners in the 2013 Great Green Parade: Irish Theme-Green, Bank of Eastern Oregon; Irish Floats-Business, Community Bank; Antique & Custom Vehicles, Morrow County Museum Antique Tractor; Parade/Special Vehicles, Technology Students of America (TSA) "Couch" Vehicle. Ribbons can be picked up at the Heppner Chamber of Commerce office next week.

No Bowl takes trophy

2013 Road Bowling Winners: Even though the weather was windy and cold with spits of snow, it didn't keep the Road Bowlers away from closing out the St. Patrick's festivities on Sunday. The youth took the award this year. "No Bowl" with a three member team consisting of Tate Gentry, Garrett Robinson and Keenan Helfrecht took the first place prize money and trophy. Second place was "Bowl Roaders" and "The Ordinary Joes" took third. All in all, it was a great event, only one bowl was lost and everyone enjoyed themselves.
