Busy morning set at All Saints Episcopal

First Friday Friends of Jesus will be meeting on the second Friday this month, instead of the first. Children age four through 12 are invited for the final session this school year, to be held on Friday, May 10, from 8 a.m. until noon at All Saints Episcopal Church in Heppner. A busy morning filled with Bible stories, skits, crafts and games concludes with a free lunch. Newcomers are always welcome. Children are reminded to bring coins for the water jug, to help raise money to build a well for people without access to clean water. More information is available by calling the Shared Ministry office at 541-676-9970.

Teams can register now for MC Relay for Life

Organizers of the Morrow County Relay for Life are looking for teams to participate in this year's event. Relay for Life is part of the American Cancer Society and Morrow County's is hosting the event for its second year.

"Since that time we have helped cancer survivors by working for a cure and making information available to people in our area," said organizer Laurie Barrow. Teams who sign up before May 15 get a discounted rate of $35. After the May 15 deadline, the cost is $50 per team and after June 15 the cost will be $75. This year's relay will be held the Morrow County Fairgrounds. It will begin Saturday, June 29 at 5 p.m. and end on Sunday, June 30 at 9 a.m. For more information contact teams Chairperson Staci Wilson at 541-429-3883 or by e-mail: staciw@mcchd.org.

Advisory Board will meet

A regular meeting of the Morrow Soil & Water Conservation District Board will meet Tuesday, May 7 at the Ag Service Center in Heppner beginning at 6 pm. Agenda items will include discussion of the Lower Umatilla Basin Groundwater Management Area Action Plan and lead agency status, approval of the April meeting minutes, treasurer's report, staff reports and partner reports and an update on office building improvements. A discussion will be held concerning puncture vine and board clarification on private versus public projects. Two board positions representing the Boardman and Irrigon areas are vacant. Landowner representation from all areas of Morrow County is essential in order to conserve, protect and develop soil, water and other natural resources for the economic and environmental benefit of the resources of Morrow County. Meetings of Morrow SWCD are open to the public.

Eileen H. Saling

Eileen Kelly Saling, 89, of Heppner, died Friday, April 26, 2013 in Heppner. Services were held on Wednesday, May 1, at All Saints Episcopal Church in Heppner.

She was born October 16, 1923 at Heppner, the daughter of Ed and Lena Hughes Kelly. Eileen attended school in Lexington and Heppner and graduated from Heppner High School. She married Renn Harris and the couple had two children, Renne and Sheryl. Following Mr. Harris' death, she later married Mike Saling and they had two daughters, Patti and Michele.

After working for several local businesses Eileen returned to school for accounting classes and later worked as a bookkeeper for many years. She was a member of All Saints Episcopal Church and Altar Guild, the Heppner Soroptimist Club and the American Legion Auxiliary.

Eileen enjoyed gardening, was an accomplished seamstress and volunteered as a 4-H Sewing Leader.

She also enjoyed canning, cooking and baking, winning many ribbons at the Morrow County Fair. She loved music and singing and taught her children how to sing harmony. She was an avid reader and enjoyed writing poetry. Other favorite activities included fishing, hunting and camping with her family. Spending time with her children and grandchildren was always treasured and a most important priority.

Survivors include daughters; Sheryl Kelly and her husband Carl Hanson, Patti Allstott and her husband David, and Michele Hams and her husband Jeff, grandchildren Brian Hevener, Blake Johlke, Aaron Allstott, Joseph Harris, Carolyn Chapman and Cris Harris, and five great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband Mike, Brother; Robert E. Kelly, sister; Kathryn Robinson and son Renne Harris. Memorial contributions may be made to Pioneer Memorial Hospital's Long Term Care Unit, PO Box 9, Heppner, Oregon 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in charge of arrangements.
