FAIR MANAGER

as Oregon FFA State Treasurer. In that capacity, Hintz travelled approximately 30,000 mile across Oregon, as well as to Indianapolis, IN and Argentina.

"What I'm doing now is what I've done for the past year on a large scale," says Zech. "It's fun to practice the skills I've learned."

He will resume his educational career this fall, entering Cornell University in Ithaca, NY to pursue a degree in agricultural science with plans to obtain either a double major or minor in marketing.

Hintz says his current job as temporary fair manager is enjoyable but a bit hectic as he tries to get up to speed and prepare for perhaps the most important fair in Morrow County history.

"No pressure, right?" he jokes.

The centennial Morrow County Fair and Oregon Trail Pro Rodeo will take place Aug. 14-17, 2013. The theme is "Harvesting 100 Years of Memories at the Morrow County Fair."

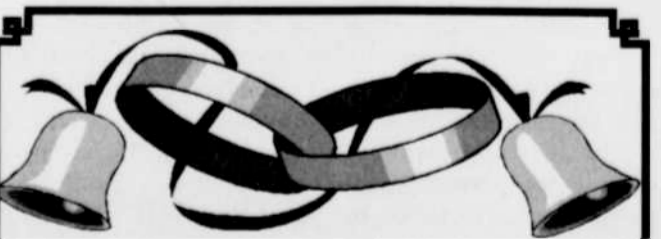

For more information, contact Hintz at 541-676-9474.

Courthouse crane lift date set

The date for the crane to lift the clock tower and the bell off of the Morrow County Courthouse in Heppner has been set for July 23. This date may be subject to change if weather conditions or other variables are not favorable.

Northwest Crane Service will bring in their 225-ton crane early in the morning and begin their set-up. If all goes well, the work should be completed by noon.

The courthouse will be closed all day on July 23 for the safety of the employees, the public and the contractor.

There will be additional work to be completed after the clock tower has been removed; that work can be best completed while the courthouse is closed.

Safety zones will be established around the courthouse and will be enforced. The public is encouraged to watch the process from a safe distance. There are many places in town that will provide a good view of the action while also being outside of the safety zones.

As updates become available, they will be provided in the Heppner Gazette-Times, on the Morrow County website at <http://morrowcountyoregon.com/clock-tower-updates/>, and on the new 'Morrow County Oregon Courthouse Clock Tower' Facebook page.
