Oregon. Heather has told me numerous times, "Mom, we couldn't manage this last year financially if it weren't for your help."
Ultimately a large portion of that thanks is due to the kind folks who helped with this cleanup project. Thank you from my entire family for your kindness.

Thank you to a group of wonderful folks and friends in our community, those who helped with cleanup and repair of damage to my property during the storm last December.
In January, the Wenberg boys cleared the majority of fallen trees for firewood which unblocked my driveway.
This July, Pastor Norman and Wanda Lee, Eve Ironhawk, Lisa Larsen, Brett Thompson, Don Tindall and Wil and Lori White of the Church of the Nazarene cleared and re-reveled the property; and Ryan Miller of Miller and Sons Excavating hauled tree stumps away.
This has been an incredible blessing for my entire family.
This time a year ago I committed the majority of my monthly income to my youngest daughter Heather's family. Heather (Wyatt) was beginning her last year of nursing school. Her husband, Travis, is also still in college. They have three small children. Heather graduated from nursing school in June. She passed her nursing state board examinations two weeks ago and is now licensed as a registered nurse in the state of
