Yes, Son, 'COWBOYS' Go To College

Especially pint-sized ranch-hands. You'd be surprised how many of them change their western hats for a mortarboard when they grow up to college-graduate size.

Of course, these young 'Buckeroos' usually have a couple of pretty good 'partners' in mom and dad in making the way to college.

They do the kind of planning and saving ahead that it takes to 'swing the deal.' They get started while their young 'cowboy' is still winning respect as the 'fastest draw' in the neighborhood.

Oregon's Best contest to feature Bob's Red Mill

The 2013 Morrow County Fair will feature a Bob's Best Home-Baked Bread contest sponsored by Bob's Red Mill.

Entries may be hand-made or machine-made yeast breads; only one entry is allowed per person. Ingredients must include one or more Bob's Red Mill flour products and one or more Bob's Red Mill specialty whole grains.

See page 59 of the fair premium book for complete details and rules.

The unending quest for the perfect loaf
Local's legacy survives in bread-baking contest

In honor of Mike Armato's unending quest for the perfect loaf of bread, this year's fair will again feature a bread baking contest in his memory.

Mike, the father of Maggie and Joe Armato, lived in Heppner and was known for his expertise in baking and cooking, especially Italian foods.

Bread entered in this contest may be of any style prepared with yeast. Bread will be judged on taste, appearance and preparation technique. More information can be found on page 58 of the fair premium book.
