Jackpot Rodeo offers community event for local talent

The Morrow County Rodeo Committee continues to offer a one-of-a-kind community rodeo for its youth and alumni graduates in the form of the Morrow County Jackpot Rodeo.

The original MOCO Rodeo was held on Friday night but, due to the abundance of local rodeo talent, the show was moved to Sunday to offer a full day of rodeo after the OTPR has ended. This is a very special one-of-a-kind rodeo, where the same committee members who have worked tirelessly all week come back out on Sunday just for Morrow County kids and past alumni.

Morrow County cowboys and cowgirls are well known in the rodeo arena at all junior and high school rodeos, as well as college, amateur and professional rodeo circuit trails. These competitors have traveled to many corners of the United States and continue to be true ambassadors of Morrow County.

"As they chase their dreams, we salute their accomplishments," states a committee member.

The MOCO Rodeo also serves as a great little rodeo alumni reunion.

The sponsorship from local businesses, private individuals and ranchers is greatly appreciated, giving all participants a chance to win numerous event buckles, a saddle, and a day to remember for their lifetime. It's not geared just for the kids or adults that travel competitively in rodeo all summer, but to anyone in the county that wants to try to ride a sheep, compete in the stickhorse race, barrel race, rope, or ride.

If you are a Morrow County alumni or a Morrow County resident for one year, you are eligible to compete. Entry forms are available at www.morrowcountyoregon/fair/index.html.

The rodeo office is open Thursday, Aug. 15. For questions, contact an OTPR committee member, call 541-676-9451 or email mocorodeo@hotmail.com; also, check out the rodeo on Facebook.
