Hisler Memorial awards calf riders, honors rodeo lover

The Shad Hisler Memorial Champion Calf Rider buckle is sponsored by Shad's parents, Paul and Susan Hisler, and his brother Shaun and sister Annie Weygandt and their families.

Shad was a 1993 Calf Riding Champion who loved the Morrow County Fair and Rodeo. He was involved in 4-H sheep, horse, photography, and a contestant in the barrel race and calf riding events. He loved football, basketball, baseball and rodeo.

On December 29, 1997, Shad lost his life in an automobile accident on the Hisler Ranch.

The buckle is personally designed each year by the Hisler family and the calves are furnished by the Mahoney Ranch.

Past Shad Hisler Memorial Calf Riding Champions Tate Gentry, Stephen Thompson, Garrett Robinson, Willy Gentry and Madison Bailey Rosenbalm show off their Champion Shad Hisler Memorial Calf Riding buckles won at the Morrow County youth & alumni rodeo held in Heppner.
