CARD OF THANKS

Every day I am approached on the streets with questions, concerns and words of encouragement about Mom (Jean Bennett). As most of you know Mom fell on June 6 and hit her head that caused extensive brain damage. She was flown to OHSU where her chances of survival were very slim. The next 40 days and 40 nights were a nightmare for my family. With the power of prayer and Mom's good living she pulled through. Right now Mom is in Heppner at the Pioneer Memorial Hospital in the Swingbed program. She is doing so well, we cannot believe it. She can walk, talk, feed herself, have conversations and read. If she is tired then her conversation drifts around some, but considering all that she has been through her progress is truly a miracle.

It is really hard to find the words that explain how overwhelming it is to have so many people care. People who have never even met mom ask about her and tell me that they pray every day for her and my family. Heppner, Lexington and Ione's community "Prayer Chains" are a very big part of why mom is where she is today. With the way Mom is progressing it looks like she will be able to go home to the ranch sometime in August. My family cannot thank you enough for the love and support we have received from so many... so from all the Bennetts THANK YOU.
