Local students qualify Over the Tee Cup for Whitworth Laureate Society

Heppner residents Kwangyeong Jeong and Rebecca Jepsen have qualified for the Whitworth University Laureate Society for spring semester 2013, the university announced last week.

The students qualified for the academic honors society by maintaining a GPA of at least 3.75 during the semester.

Located in Spokane, WA, Whitworth is a private liberal arts university affiliated with the Presbyterian church.

The eight ladies who hit the Willow Creek Country Club golf course on Tuesday, Aug. 13, described the weather as "perfect." Of those eight, Pat Edmundson walked away with the low gross of the field, while Pat Dougherty took low net and Bev Steagall had least putts.

For flight A, Eva Kilkenny had low gross and long drive, and Carol Mitchell had low net.

On flight B, Sarah Rucker took both low gross and long drive.

In flight C, Shirley Martin had low gross and long drive.

Eva Kilkenny had KP for all flights.

Wildhorse announces grant recipients

Ione organizations among recipients

Three Morrow County organizations—two from Ione—were among the 2013 second-quarter grant recipients for the Wildhorse Foundation, the foundation announced last week.

The City of Ione received a $10,000 grant for a city hall HVAC upgrade. Ione American Legion Post #95 also received a $10,000 grant, this one for a roof replacement.

The Boardman Community Development Association also received $2,000 to construct a recreational pavilion at Marker 40 Beach.

The Wildhorse Foundation, a community benefit fund established by the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation (CTUIR) to support organizations in northeastern Oregon and southeastern Washington, awarded a total of $239,467 to 35 recipients, bringing the total for 2013 to almost $450,000.

The Wildhorse Foundation Board will consider awarding grants to applications that cover the areas of public health and safety, education, the arts, historic preservation, gambling addiction services, salmon restoration, environmental protection, and cultural activities.

The quarterly deadlines for requests are Jan. 1, April 1, July 1 and Oct. 1.

For more information on Wildhorse Foundation guidelines or to receive an application, visit www.wildhorseresort.com or call Tiah DeGroff at 541-966-1628.

Music in the Park is back in Heppner

Porter & the Pale Ales

Heppner's own Music in the Park returns to Hager Park (near the dam) on Sunday, Aug. 25, from 5-7 p.m.

Sharon Porter, Matt Cooper and friends (a collaboration of gifted musicians sometimes known as Porter & the Pale Ales) will entertain with a variety of instruments and well-known tunes from the 1930s through the 60s.

The community is invited to bring lawn chairs to another evening of great music sponsored by the Morrow County Unified Recreation District and facilitated by the Shared Ministry of Hope Lutheran Church and All Saints Episcopal Church.

Food will be available for purchase to raise funds for the Shared Ministry's well-building mission trip to Guatemala in December.

More information is available by calling the Shared Ministry office at 541-676-9970.

Scholarship applications available

Applications are now available for the Elizabeth Slottee Memorial Scholarship. They are available online on the Heppner High School website at www.hhs.morrow.k12.or.us/.

The deadline for these to be turned in is Sept. 9. For questions, call Bill Rietmann at 422-7296 or Sharon Harrison at 989-8496.

The Slottee Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to a junior, senior or graduate student at an accredited four-year college or university.

The scholarship is given annually in order of priority, with first choice to a student majoring or minoring in music and second to a student who has been accepted into a school of education.

Criteria used in awarding this scholarship include scholarship, leadership, citizenship, financial need, and probability of success in the student's chosen field.
