CARD OF THANKS

I would like to give a huge thank you to Zech Hintz, who worked miracles getting fair together and keeping me on schedule. Zech, you did an amazing job. Good luck at Cornell you will be missed. Thank you to Teresa VanDoorn for being patient with Zech and myself and keeping the office side of fair running smoothly all week. Cheryl Taylor for managing camp trailers on the football field and doing every other job that popped up. Erin Heideman for managing camp trailers in the bus barn and providing my cart to get around fair quickly. I would like to thank John Qualls for running the pool during auction, Bank of Eastern Oregon for assisting with auction, Ken Grieb for auctioneering, and 4-H Ambassadors for running cards throughout auction. Thank you to Gail Gutierrez and Karen Wolff for assisting in the office and helping with premiums. Lone Community Club and RJ Livestock for a wonderful Buyer's Lunch. Cathy Rauch for getting elbow deep in ice cream during the Ice Cream Social. A huge thank you to Babette Wall for making the fair look spectacular for our 100th year and all those who donated memorabilia for decoration during fair. The Open Class Superintendents for a wonderful job throughout fair. Thank you to Donna Sherman for keeping the grounds clean. To all those who jumped in to clean up water from our sudden rain storm and the National Weather Service for giving us a heads up on the storm, thank you. Merry Chandler and her crew for running our ticket booth and provide radio entertainment. Tim Nelson for helping the younger exhibitors in the pig barn by cleaning pens, loaning supplies, cleaning wash racks and running boards. Pat Struthers and his crew for not only redoing tables, benches and the vegetable area but donating personal tools for use on the grounds. FFA for the beautiful hanging baskets and flowers for the beds. To all the 4-H and FFA exhibitors for not only the hard work put out on clean-up day, which was amazing, but the continued work done throughout fair week to keep the grounds and exhibits looking wonderful. They did an amazing job of going above and beyond! Thank you to all our generous sponsors and donors who make fair possible. Thank you to all those stepped in and helped whether known or unknown. Last but not least, thank you to my family for putting up with me throughout a stressful but fun fair week.
