

Sheriff's Report

July 7: -Heppner ambulance received a call regarding a 78-year-old female who was barely conscious but breathing. She got out of the hospital a couple of weeks ago from pneumonia.

July 8: -MCSO received a report that last weekend juveniles were chasing after deer, in vehicles, in the Heppner Cemetery. An extra patrol was requested.

-A man in Irrigon called MCSO and advised his wife wouldn't let him leave. Deputies responded and made contact with both parties; it was determined to be verbal only.

-A man in Irrigon advised that a male subject had left a threatening letter on his door. Deputy responded.

-A man in Heppner reported that the house next door has been vacant and the yard is out of control and there is a rattlesnake in the yard and he is concerned about his grandchildren.

-A man in Heppner advised MCSO that his neighbor was getting things out of the other neighbor's storage and throwing them into his own yard. The caller advised that this was the second time he had been over there that day; he was taking poles and other items and throwing them in the yard and the house is vacant, so it was unknown why he is throwing the items in the yard. A deputy made contact and the neighbor was supposed to be there doing some chores on the property.

-A woman reported that there were people at the swimming pool in Heppner. She did not believe anyone should be there at that time of night; she thought it was a life guard because the doors were open. There were two people there that she could tell. She advised that she was concerned in case something should happen to them.

July 9: -A man requested to talk to a deputy about going to a Heppner residence he was restrained from to get his belongings and turn the water off.
