CARD OF THANKS

The members of the Hardman Community Center would like to thank the material donors and volunteer laborers for their generous contributions toward the Foundation Restoration Project of the old IOOF Lone Balm Lodge Hall. In support of the donated efforts, a small supplemental Preserving Oregon Grant was received from the State Historic Preservation Office which is greatly appreciated. The dance floor and stage are now ready for another 100 years or more of social activities common to this historical site. Commemorative hats, T-Shirts and Folk Art items are available for sale seasonally on weekends or special occasions and are tax-deductible for the historical non-profit Community Center projects established in 1961.
