Heppner FBLA sports pink for cancer awareness

The Heppner High School Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA) once again supported breast cancer awareness during breast cancer awareness month in October. As part of that, the group asked the community to wear pink on Oct. 10 in support of the cause, and many in the local schools and businesses took them up on the challenge. MC SCHOOL DISTRICT

Currently the district has 2,106 students with 255 at A.C. Houghton Elementary in Irrigon (kindergarten through third grade); 332 at Sam Boardman Elementary (K-third), Boardman; 166 at Heppner Elementary (K-sixth); 174 at Irrigon Elementary (fourth-sixth grade); 204 at Windy River Elementary (fourth-sixth); 172 at Heppner High School (seventh-12th grade); 383 at Irrigon Junior Senior High School (seventh-12th); 393 at Riverside High School, Boardman (seventh-12th); and 27 at the Morrow Education Center in Irrigon.

In other business, the board:

—learned from Dirksen and Andy Fletcher, district business manager, that the district has "probably over 100 years of records" saved and has to determine whether it is more feasible and economical to scan the records electronically or store them. Having enough fire proof storage is also a big concern, if storage is the option selected.

—approved the following employment action: resignations-Kim Campos, IJSH assistant softball coach, Anna Wedding, Heppner Junior High assistant girls' basketball coach, Mike Ehrsam, HJH assistant basketball coach; retirements-Carol Smith, retiring as of December 1; employment/promotions/transfers-Carol Smith, rehiring for IES head cook position through the end of the school year; extra duty contracts-Mike Escobedo, IJSH assistant football coach, Dan Verley, IJSH head softball coach.

—saw a presentation of longevity pins to IHS staff and introduction of new IJHS staff.

—approved a cooperative sponsorship between Ione and Heppner high schools for baseball, softball and wrestling for 2013-14.

—recognized Irrigon High School as an outstanding school by the Oregon Department of Education.

—discussed sending board agendas to board members prior to meetings as PDFs (portable data files), scanned in and sent electronically to save paper and mailing costs. One option was to send the files electronically and then have a hard copy to hand out at meetings. One board member advised that his internet service was not good enough to receive documents electronically. Another option presented was for the board members to all receive their board info on iPads.

—heard the following announcements: Oct. 24-end of the first nine weeks; Monday, Nov. 11-Veterans Day holiday; Tuesday, Nov. 12-next board meeting, Heppner High School, 7 p.m.; Nov. 14-17-Oregon School Board Association convention, Portland.

—held an expulsion hearing in executive session following the regular meeting.
