CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank Mr. Fowler and his woods manufacturing class for building me a new ramp to get in and out of my house. I was house bound before and the new ramp means freedom and independence. You all are very much appreciated.

Thanks you

To Shelly Britt and her crew:

Thank you so much for all the work you guys did for Crysti Taylor's Auction and Chilli Feed Benefit.

We, The Taylors, Sincerely thank you and this whole town for the support you have given her.

Two more chemos and she'll be done. Prayers please.

How do we accurately express our appreciation for the overwhelming support from all of those who came to the benefit? We are grateful for all the generous people who spent well-earned dollars to give our son and his wife help at such a horrible time in their lives. I apologize ahead of time if I forgot someone—I truly am sorry but know that your contributions were noticed. Thank you Cheryl and Jody for spear-heading/cooking the dinner and Jody for her continual requests for donations. It was beyond imagination how many people donated. We also would like to thank Phil Starkey for his multiple roles during the night, Debbie Starkey for collecting all the money. Frank Asher was an amazing auctioneer. Linda, the ever-present assistant, always filling in wherever, including helping to cook for the massive crowd. We want to thank Painted Hills Beef for their generation donation—I know this company always donates to local requests and each time it is greatly appreciated. Thanks also to Spray School for agreeing to have it at the facility—where the Starrs have spent many many hours.

To everyone that made a donation, ate, bought an auction item, bought a raffle ticket, drove to Spray, and took time out of your busy schedules—THANK YOU! For those that do not know, Andy was diagnosed with stage 4 stomach cancer, without meeting any risk factor. He has started chemo and the doctor gave him a 50/50 chance of responding the treatment. At the same time, they found out they were expecting their first baby. It means everything to them to have your support. Cancer does not care who it attacks—but the citizens of Wheeler County (and Morrow) are standing with the cancer patient to fight with them. Know that Andy is feeling better than he has for several months. Again, thank you for the benefit—it made me cry at times to see the sheer amount of people and support.
