Celebrating five generations of girls

Four generations of girls are celebrating the addition of a fifth generation with the birth of Amiyah Rose Mudgett on Aug. 30, 2013. Amiyah is the first daughter of Cierra Mudgett of Pendleton, the first grandchild to Mindy Mudgett of Pendleton, the first great-grandchild to Marilyn Brown of Pendleton, and first great-great-grandchild to Heppner's June Jones. Pictured are (left) great-great-grandmother June Jones, holding Amiyah Rose Mudgett, (top) Amiyah's grandmother Mindy Mudgett, (far right) great-grandmother Marilyn Brown and (front right) mother Cierra Mudgett. -Contributed photo

A gift of food available this Sunday

Help is available for anyone having trouble keeping food on the table this month.

A box of food will be given, no questions asked, to anyone who comes to All Saints Episcopal Church parking lot this Sunday, Nov. 24, from 2 to 4 p.m. This box contains canned, packaged and fresh food items.

The church is at the corner of Gale and Church Streets in Heppner, just behind the Neighborhood Center. Those who are home-bound may call 541-676-9970 and request delivery. Be sure to leave a message with your contact information.

This gift comes from area churches, coordinated by the Shared Ministry of Hope Lutheran and All Saints Episcopal Churches. Shared Ministry Pastor Katy Anderson says it is given "in gratitude for God's abundant blessings."

Play to delve into issue of alcoholism

"Lady On The Rocks," a drama about alcoholism, will be presented at St. Patrick's Parish Hall on Sunday, Nov. 24, at 5 p.m. Admission is free.

The play was written by Elizabeth Blake, and originally presented under the auspices of "Plays For Living," a division of Family Service Association of America, and commissioned by the National Council of Alcoholism. Set in the 1960s, the play features Anne Morter as Deborah, Brian Kollman as Mark, Rylee Kollman as Sue, and Kane Sweeney as Danny.

Bobby Harris will lead discussion following the play; Father Gerry Condon will direct.

Coffee and punch will be served following the discussion. Everyone is welcome.

Girls State attendees speak at Veterans Day gathering

Seventh-day Adventist church on winter schedule

The Heppner Seventh-day Adventist Church is changing its worship time for the winter months.

Starting this Saturday, Nov. 23, Bible class and worship service will be in the afternoon, with services beginning at 1:30 p.m. This schedule is expected to last from November until March due to winter weather conditions.

Wheatland Insurance competes for canned food

Wheatland Insurance Center is participating in a canned-food drive, which will include all 10 of its offices.

Not only that, but all 10 of the insurance offices also are in competition with each other.

The Heppner and Lone branches are asking for the help of local community members to make one of them the branch to collect the most canned food before the Dec. 13 deadline.

Drop off nonperishable donations at either the Heppner or Lone Wheatland office. The food collected by Heppner and Lone will be taken to the Neighborhood Center to help those in our area.

Willow Creek Symphony to hold lone concert

Inland Northwest Musicians will present Willow Creek Symphony in a free concert Saturday, Nov. 23, at 7 p.m. at Lone High School, 445 Spring St., Ione.

R. Lee Friese is the music director with Ralph Werner as associate conductor; the concert is sponsored by the Morrow County Unified Recreation District.

The program will include selections like Sounds of Simon and Garfunkel, Bridge Over Troubled Water and El Condor Pasa, among others.

Audience members are invited to join performers for a reception with beverages and cookies after the concert.

Willow Creek Symphony rehearses on Tuesday evenings at Irrigon

Jr.-Sr. High School. Some instrumental sections are supplemented by players from the Inland Northwest Orchestra. Ralph Werner of Hermiston is the associate director the all-volunteer Willow Creek Symphony.

Admission is free to all Inland Northwest concerts.

Inland Northwest Musicians is a non-profit organization; tax deductible Season Sustaining Memberships with voting rights may be purchased for $50 at the door.

For additional information or questions about Inland Northwest Musicians, check out the website, <http://www.inlandnorthwestmusicians.com/>, visit the Facebook page, or contact Judi Mason at judimasn@eoni.com or 541-314-5407, or R. Lee Friese at 541-377-1865.

Area residents graduate from EOU

Five Heppner residents were among the 593 students awarded undergraduate degrees by Eastern Oregon University during the 2012-13 academic year. Three Boardman residents and two Irrigon residents also graduated from EOU this year.

Heppner graduates were: Dyann Brosnan, Magna Cum Laude, Bachelor of Science, Business Administration; Kelsie Fox, Bachelor of Science, Multidisciplinary Studies and Education/Elementary; Sarah Harris, Bachelor of Science, Liberal Studies; and Eric Jepsen, Summa Cum Laude, Bachelor of Science, Multidisciplinary Studies.

Boardman students were: Manuel Aviles Cordero, Bachelor of Science, Business Administration; Brooke Barton, Magna Cum Laude, Master of Science, Education; and Bryce Doherty, Bachelor of Science, Liberal Studies. Irrigon students were: Jose DeLoera Avila, Bachelor of Science, Multidisciplinary Studies and Education/Elementary; and Laurie Ellis, Magna Cum Laude, Bachelor of Science, Liberal Studies.

Students graduating with honors earned a cumulative GPA of 3.50 or above and an EOU GPA of 3.85 - 4.0 for Summa Cum Laude, 3.70-3.84 for Magna Cum Laude, or 3.50-3.69 for Cum Laude.

Mr. Bill's Traveling Trivia returns to Heppner

"Mickey Mouse's faithful dog Pluto was originally known by what name?"

"Who is the only golfer to win all four Majors at least three times?"

The reader who thinks he or she knows the answers to these questions should be thinking about signing up to participate in Mr. Bill's Traveling Trivia Show, which is scheduled to return to Heppner next month.

The Heppner Day Care will again sponsor, on Dec. 6 at 7 p.m. at the Elks Club, the fun and entertaining event as a fundraiser for the nonprofit organization.

Entry forms are available at Heppner Day Care or on the table at the post office. Though teams may enter on the evening of the show, early entries are strongly encouraged. A table will be reserved with the team name for every early entry, and early entries will help with starting the show on time and help to prevent delays at the door.

The entry fee for each team is $150, which breaks down to just $25 per person on a team of the allowed and suggested six members.

Though individual team members often pay their own entry fees, another suggestion is to recruit a sponsor for one's team. A team can have from one to six members.

The members of the three top-scoring teams at Mr. Bill's will receive prizes, as well as bragging rights. Every participant will have an equal opportunity to win a door prize at some point in the evening. The day care also will be raffling some baskets with "interesting" contents.

The "30 Something" team took home the gold last year, followed by "It Is What It Is" with silver, and "BEO Brainiacs" claiming the bronze.

Local trivia buffs are encouraged to start forming teams, as the "30 Somethings" are studying up for the repeat...the contest welcomes all other competitors who think they have a chance to de-throne them.

Mr. Bill's questions run the gamut of topics, and sample questions and answers can be found on his website, <http://www.mrbillstrivia.com>.
