Books worm their way into kids' hearts thanks to local club

The Heppner Preschool four-year-old class is enjoying a bountiful gift of books from "The Bookworm" club in Heppner. With the arrival of books brought by Pat Edmundson, the children were able to sit down before departure of preschool and enjoy many stories. A variety of books was given, with different age ranges of books, as well. The Bookworm club has been giving books to the Heppner Day Care, Inc. for many years. "To think of us each holiday season is a gift in itself," says Heppner Day Care Director Merry Chandler.
