Mustangs dominate in week of baseball

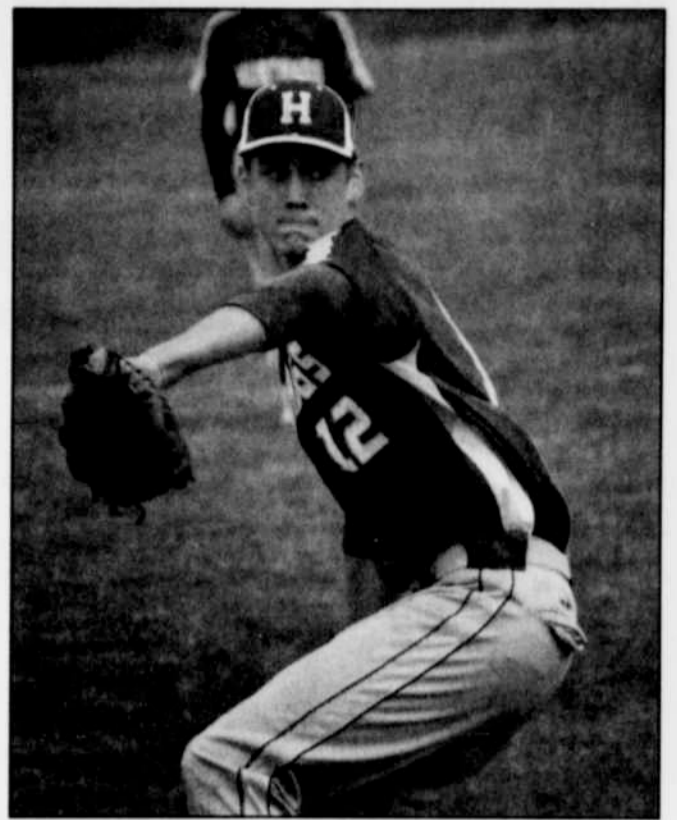

Heppner/Ione baseball recovered from a rocky season start to begin a three-game winning streak at the beginning of the month.

The Mustangs first travelled to Umatilla on April 1, walking away with an 8-1 victory. They then hosted the Joseph/Enterprise team in a twinbill on April 5, treating the visitors to matching 11-1 losses.

With no league games yet played, the Mustangs so far have an overall record of 3-1.

JC Putman and Jordan Bailey contributed clean pitching to the victories on Saturday, combining for only eight walks. Putman also started the day going 4-for-5 with four RBIS, and Wes Putman went 2-for-3 with three RBIS. Later in the day Brian Rill went 3-for-4 with four RBIs for Heppner.
