Greenup wins OWF scholarship

The Oregon Wheat OWF has awarded scholarships to students from nine Oregon counties, as well as one at-large one of its ten $1,000 scholarships this year.

Greenup, daughter of Travis and Tiffanie Greenup, is a graduating senior at Heppner High School. She plans to attend Southwestern Oregon Community College with a major in business and minor in political science with a goal of becoming a lawyer. Blake is a four-year athlete in basketball, golf and high school rodeo; she is also ASB business manager, FBLA president, on the honor roll and two-time individual girl's golf state qualifier. Blake has served her community in several capacities.

OWF has awarded scholarships to students from nine Oregon counties, as well as one at-large one of its ten $1,000 scholarships this year. Students were judged on their community involvement, academic achievement and an essay on a wheat industry topic.

Oregon Wheat Foundation scholarships are open to high-school seniors whose parents are members of the Oregon Wheat Growers League or whose parents are employed by members of the organization. The scholarship is also open to students employed by grower members. Scholarship applications for high school graduates are available online at www.owgl.org.

Correction

An article in last week's Gazette-Times incorrectly stated that the Heppner Rural Fire Department was looking to build a new facility in Heppner. The Heppner Rural Fire Protection District is not connected with the new facility. The district is a separate entity from the Heppner Fire Department and contracts for fire protection from the Heppner Fire Department.

South Morrow County Scholarship Trust announces recipients

The South Morrow County Scholarship Trust has announced the recipients of the 2014 scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each. They are Emily Holland, Jaqueline Juarez-Alvarez, Ryan Dougherty, Charlette Burghard and Lillian Sandford. The five students were selected out of 11 applicants on the basis of academic achievement, chosen field of study, financial need, school participation, degree of effort the student has made in seeking sources for college, and personal characteristics for success and school citizenship.

Emily Holland is the daughter of Janet-Lee and Craig Holland of Ione. She attends Ione High School. She intends to become an English teacher and pursue writing. Emily plans on attending a four-year college and is considering Western Oregon University or Carroll College of Montana. She is active in school with varsity letters in volleyball, basketball, and track and field. Emily is a member of National Honor Society, serving as Chapter President, and student body secretary. She is a member of the Ione High School choir, Ione International Club, and 4-H. Emily also is very active in her community. She has spent hours volunteering for the Ione Community School carnival, the American Red Cross, as referee for middle school home volleyball games, has worked the concessions at games, and has walked in fundraisers to cure diabetes and breast cancer. Emily is a Big Sky Scholar-Athlete and will be serving as co-valedictorian.

Jaqueline Juarez-Alvarez also attends Ione High School. She is the daughter of Amado and Elia Juarez of Ione. She is going to Eastern Oregon University in the fall to work toward a bachelor's degree in nursing. She is a member of St. Williams Parish youth group and National Honor Society, and serves as Ione yearbook editor. She is a Big Sky Scholar-Athlete, winning academic awards for social studies, writing and language arts-reading. She has varsity letters in basketball and volleyball. She is active in the community and in school, volunteering in town cleanup, school carnival, Oregon Food Bank and Heppner FFA canned food drive, Ione Booster club concessions, youth track meets and many others. Jaqueline was an American Legion Auxiliary Girls State Delegate in 2013.

Ryan Dougherty

Ryan Dougherty attends Heppner High School and is the daughter of Dawna and Cliff Dougherty. She is considering Arizona State University or Mesa Community College in Arizona. Ryan wants to pursue a career as a speech pathologist. She has job shadowed at Good Shepherd Medical Center, which gave her firsthand experience in this field, helping her with this decision. She will be graduating with an honors degree. Ryan is a member of St. Patrick's youth group, FBLA and FFA. She was captain of volleyball and BMC second team all-league in 2013. She has varsity letters in volleyball, softball, and track and field. She served as class president for three years and as editor of the yearbook, winning outstanding achievement in yearbook in 2011. She has won honors in public speaking in FFA. Ryan is active in the community, volunteering at the nursing home in Heppner, Mustang Mop-Up, canned food drive, elementary carnival, community improvement, and helping Heppner chamber with lights for the city.

Charlette J. A. Burghard, the daughter of Orissa Burghard, attends Ione High School. She is considering attending Eastern Oregon University or the Oregon Institute of Technology. Charlette intends to get her bachelor's degree in pre-med and health sciences. She is planning on attending a summer medical camp at Eastern Oregon University to help prepare her for this. Charlette is a National Honor Society Member, band and pep band member, and member of Ione Choir Ensemble, Willow Creek Symphony and Mid-Columbia Honor Band. She attended Music in May at Pacific University. She has varsity letters in basketball, and track and field. Charlette has volunteered for community clean-up Ione, Oregon Food Bank, concession fundraisers and Ione community school science fair. She is a Big Sky Conference Athletic, Principals Honors Award, and outstanding science student recognition award winner.

Charlette J. A. Burghard

Lillian Sandford attends Heppner High School and is the daughter of Sylvia and Richard Sandford. Lillian plans on attending Colorado Northwestern Community College in Rangely, CO. She is interested in pursuing a career in dental hygiene. She has been job shadowing a dental hygienist this year, which further piques her interest in this field. Lillian is a member of National Honor Society, serving as secretary. She is also a member of FBLA and Oregon High School Rodeo Assoc., 4-H, serving as ambassador, and is a member of FFA, serving as reporter and vice president. She has been active in the community, volunteering for Mustang Mop-Up, City Beautification Committee Student Representative, Bingo at the assisted living, has cleaned at the fairgrounds, and knitted scarves for the needy and Adopt-A-Family. Lillian served as Miss Oregon High School Rodeo and a student officer, promoting the sport and life of rodeo. The board of directors of the scholarship trust includes Bill Rietmann, president; Ginger Bowman, vice-president; Del LaRue, treasurer; Sharon Harrison, secretary; Missy Cutsforth, Martha Munkers and Carri Grieb. The South Morrow County Scholarship Inc. was established several years ago with the mission to grow funds to provide scholarships to graduating seniors from Heppner and Ione high schools and to eventually take the place of the Troedson Scholarship fund, which will be discontinued in the year 2023. Tax deductible donations can be sent to SMCS Inc., PO Box 367, Ione, OR 97843.
