

Class bids farewell to Mrs. Rill Summer enrichment camp

Mrs. Molly Rill celebrated her last school day with her third-grade class at Heppner Elementary School on June 5. During an all-school assembly, Rill was presented with an Adirondack chair with handprints and names of her current class of students, a Dr. Seuss book, and a gift certificate from the HES staff and the Parent Teacher Club. —Contributed photo

planned at HHS

A summer enrichment camp for children in grades seven through nine has been planned Tuesday through Thursday at Heppner High School.

The camp, which will be held from 12:30-2:30 p.m., will include arts, crafts, cooking, games and other hands-on projects.

Organizer Andrea Nelson said that students do not need to register for the camp, but can just show up for the activities.

'Fizz, boom, read!' at Heppner library

Readers of all ages will explore science this summer as the Oregon Trail Library District presents "Fizz, Boom, Read!" during the summer reading program June 12 through Aug. 15.

Activities will include stories, science experiments, guest performers and more.

The main summer reading activities will take place at the Heppner library Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. with a few exceptions. Fridays will feature movies at 2 p.m. The summer reading program is free and is open to young people ages 0 and up.

Registration is underway. Stop by the library to register and pick up a schedule of events.

June 18 deadline for HHS calendar

Anyone who still wants a Heppner High School volleyball community birthday calendar may still add their names and birthdays to the calendar. Those interested should send $10 to the high school, including names and birth dates to be included on the calendar. Deadline is June 18.
