OR26 PUTS DOWN ROOTS

-Continued from PAGE ONE indicates that he is paired and likely has pups, but further field surveys are needed to confirm.

Repeated use of the area over a period of time indicates that wolves have become established and are not simply dispersing wolves. However, ODFW says it has little data regarding the specifics of this group.

On the WCCC Green

Over the Tee Cup

June 17 was a rainy day for the ladies who showed up for their play day at Willow Creek Country Club. Several did show up despite the weather, however; of those, Betty Burns took low gross of the field, Jackie Allstott took low net and Bev Steagall had least putts.

For Flight B, Pat Dougherty took low gross and long drive. Sarah Rucker had low net.

For Flight C, Bev Steagall had low gross, Judy Harris low net and Betty Burns long drive.

Bev Steagall had a chip-in on #9.

Sunday men's play results for June 22

Twenty-five men played in the regular Sunday Men's Play on June 22. The weather was excellent and the course was in great condition with new flags sponsored by the Bank of Eastern Oregon, Morrow County Grain Growers, and Devin Oil.

Results were as follows:
Gross: 1. Barry Munkers - 65, 2. Ron Bowman - 66, 3. Greg Grant - 69, 4. Bob MacDonald - 70.

Net: 1. Stacy Wilson - 54, 2. Shawn Wilson - 58, 3. (tie) John Edmundson and Bill Morris - 59.

Hosts for the day were Dale Boyd, Bob MacDonald and Dave Mitchell.

Next weekend will feature the Willow Creek Country Club Men's Invitational with about 100 players participating. The tournament is chaired by Ron Bowman.

Regular Sunday morning play will resume on July 6 with Josh Coiner, John McCabe and Chip VonGunten in charge.

Barbecue makes golf a family affair

Last Sunday's family barbecue at Willow Creek Country Club was hosted by Charlie and Jodi Ferguson, with 13 participants playing a scramble format.

Elks Buchanan Memorial Scholarships available for college students

Heppner BPOE #358 will once again this year offer scholarships to students in honor of the late Clarence Buchanan.

The current scholarship is for any second- to fourth-year college students, trade school students or graduate school students who are either members themselves or have a parent/grandparent or step-parent/step-grandparent who are members-in-good-standing of the Heppner Lodge #358.

The application will be available via email. Anyone needing a copy of the application can email scholarship chairman Tim Dickenson at dickensonchiro@centurytel.net or call/stop by his office 541-676-8990.

Applications are due by July 15.

Lexington Grange works toward reinstatement

The Lexington Grange hall will be cleaned up this week in preparation for reinstatement. -Contributed photo

Those who remember the Lexington Grange may be happy to hear work is being done to reinstate it into active use.

Toward that end, clean-up days will be held at the Grange hall Wednesday, June 25, and Thursday, June 26, beginning at 6 p.m.

The Lexington Grange's first official meeting will be held July 10. An informational meeting will be held from 6-7 p.m. with initiation of members to begin at 7 p.m.

The Grange operates at a local, state and even national level. The roots of the organization are based in agriculture, and it is a non-profit organization that is open to anyone who is interested.

Those now working on the Lexington Grange say they are hoping to support the local community by becoming a meeting place, sponsoring local events and activities, and supporting charitable causes.

All of the people currently involved in reinstating the grange in Lexington are first-time grange members who say they are learning about the organization as they go.

In order to be a member of the grange, individuals or families must attend monthly meetings and pay annual dues.
