

4-H ambassadors help fair-goers rest easy

Music in the Park to feature Envoy

The next concert in the Heppner edition of Summer Music in the Park will be held this Sunday, July 27, from 5 to 7 p.m. at the newly-remodeled lower field below Heppner Elementary School. The lower field can be accessed from Main Street via the walking bridge across Willow Creek (next to the library), or from the grade-school parking lot.

Lea and Mark Emerson will perform with their group, Envoy—an eclectic band whose music draws upon folk, pop, jazz and blues. The band has released three CDs, and its music can be found on iTunes and on their website, emersonmusicarts.com.

Lea and Mark Emerson

Envoy provides an

"entertainment experience with rich vocals and outstanding musicianship."

This concert is funded by the Morrow County Unified Recreation District, and facilitated by the Shared Ministry of Hope Lutheran Church and All Saints Episcopal Church. The Shared Ministry will be offering food for sale by donation, to help raise funds for their next well-drilling mission trip to Haiti in the fall of 2015.
