

2014 Morrow County Fair Ambassadors

Kane Sweeney, Tim Gould, Morgan Orem, Emily Taylor, Miranda Taylor and Macy Gibbs. These youth represent Morrow County 4-H year round at different events and activities and are the premier leadership team for 4-H in Morrow County. The Ambassadors learn leadership skills while participating in community service events, teambuilding activities and assisting the 4-H office in all things 4-H related. They assist with recruitment in the Fall during National 4-H week, they host and emcee Achievement Night also held in the fall. The Ambassadors plan activities and events throughout the 4-H year to offer to other 4-H'ers and the communities we all live in. These members put in a lot of hard work and efforts to help make 4-H what it is today. We would also like to recognize Jeannie Collins for her assistance to help steer this group and work with them on all of their efforts, Jeannie is a volunteer 4-H leader in Morrow County and also serves on the Ambassador Advisory Committee. Ambassadors are 4-H members in grades 8-12 residing in Morrow County, they usually have experience in the program and are willing and able to serve on this leadership team throughout the year. For more information on how to serve as an ambassador please contact the 4-H office at: 541-676-9642 or email Ashley Jones at: Ashley.jones@oregonstate.edu

Kane Sweeney (L) and Tim Gould (R) at 2013 4-H awards night

Kane Sweeney, Tim Gould, Morgan Orem, Emily Taylor, Miranda Taylor and Macy Gibbs.

"Icebreaker" activities at 1st 4-H meeting of the year

Introduction of Flat Stanley

2013 4-H awards night

Accepting donation from Monsanto

Painting benches for the fairgrounds