

Bracelets to take place of paper fair passes

Again this year we will have bracelets for adult and kid passes instead of paper ones. This was done to make it easier for the gate people. However, keep track of your bracelet as anyone who loses his bracelet will not get another one. Please keep them on your wrist throughout the fair (this includes 4-H and FFA members).

Angie Hanson new face on the Fair Board

There is a new face on the Fair Board this year. Angie Hanson from Heppner joined this year. Other members include Nancy Gorham from Boardman, Rod Taylor from Ione and Shirlee Sweigart from Heppner. They are available if you have any questions, but please don't overwhelm the new members, and let's not forget our "amazing" caretaker Barry Munkers. He has done an excellent job cleaning up the grounds and keeping things tip top.

Ball and Kerr sponsor canning awards

Ball & Kerr are sponsoring Adult & Youth Food Preservation Awards in the Canning Department. For more details look on page 42 in the Premium Book.

Hart Keene

Who doesn't like magic? Let Hart Keene excite and amaze you at the fair on Thursday and Friday.
