

Athena resident receives Toastmaster Excellence in Marketing Award

Award
Editor's note: Jim Marquardt, son of Betty Marquardt, is originally from the Lexington area.

Athena, Ore.—Jim Marquardt, Peace Officer/Inspector at OLCC (Oregon Liquor Control Commission) was honored at a Hall of Fame ceremony on Thursday, Aug. 21, during the Toastmasters International Convention in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. He was accompanied by his wife, Darlene Marquardt, the Toastmasters District 9 Public Relations Officer and other District officers and the Regional Advisor.

Marquardt led his team to meet and exceed its membership and club goals, truly exemplifying the Toastmaster International brand and mission. This goal was realized by the District becoming a "Distinguished" district for the first time since 2010.

Marquardt, a Toastmasters member since 2007, advanced through a Toastmasters leadership progression that included serving in club-officer roles, then Governor of a group of four Toastmasters clubs, known as an "Area," followed by Governor of a "Division," a group of 16 clubs, and then Lieutenant Governor Marketing for District 9. He currently holds the position of Lieutenant Governor Education and Training.

"My goal is to continue serve District 9," Marquardt says, "and provide our leaders with the skills and resources they need to be successful leaders as they serve their clubs and communities. It was a great honor to be recognized for this accomplishment and I have to give the credit to the members and the clubs in this district, for without their effort I would not have received this award."

The International President, George Yen quotes, "The international network of Toastmasters clubs must continually expand; membership growth, club growth, and an increased focus on distinguished clubs are all key factors in making our organization reach its mission of empowering individuals to become more effective communicators and leaders. Thank you for living the Toastmasters International mission through your leadership and dedication."
