Sheriff's Report

May 6: -MCSO received a complaint of a beagle at the high school in Irrigon, white bottom, brown and black spots and a white ring around the top of his neck. He did not have a collar. Dog was in front of the school. MCSO responded and transported one male beagle to Pet Rescue.

-MCSO received a call from a woman who reported she left the headrest to her wheelchair at a hair salon and needed it to get to a doctor's appointment that day, and she was unable to get in touch with the salon's owner and needed it by 11 a.m. that day. MCSO responded and was able to return the item to the caller.

-MCSO cited Kevin Haskel Bond, 42, for Driving While Suspended Violation and issued a warning for an obscured windshield.

-MCSO received report of cows on I-84 near Boardman. A deputy contacted the owner and advised that they need to advise dispatch so they can be contacted if the cows get out.

May 7: -MCSO received a request for an agency assist from Umatilla County; there was a violent disturbance at a Hermiston residence with a highly cautionary subject. UCSO requested backup and Oregon State Police were not available.

-An agency in Boardman requested assistance, reporting a resident attempting to flee the area. He was not present at the 02:00 bed check. Employees went looking for him. He was last seen at the I-84 westbound off ramp. Subject was last seen wearing blue jeans, no shirt with suspenders on. No shoes. Has a beard.

-A Lexington man called MCSO and said he would like to show a deputy evidence of trespassing occurring on his property.

-A Lexington man reported that there had been a motorcycle on his RV property. He put up no trespassing signs and would like a trail cam put up to see who is riding on his RV camping property. Caller would like them trespassed when they are caught.

-A deputy was flagged down by a motorist and advised that there was a vehicle blocking the stop sign at Gilmore/Hager in Heppner.

-MCSO was advised that a male subject was urinating in the roadway in Boardman. Deputy made contact with the subject and passenger warned for disorderly conduct.

May 8: -MCSO was advised by a motorist in Boardman that a male took off coveralls and was hiding in the shrubs. MCSO and BPD made contact. Male had broken down on the highway and was running home to get assistance.

-A caller from Irrigon had some questions regarding barking dogs. A deputy explained the laws.

-MCSO received report that a vehicle drove off the curb when leaving the Sinclair station in Boardman. A citation was issued to Christopher Ramm, 45, for carrying less than an ounce of marijuana.

May 9: -A woman called and said her mother was taking care of a teenager. Advised that the female did not have a place to live so her mother took the juvenile in. Caller advised that the juvenile is pushing her mother around, and has gotten physical with her. She is not being physical at this time but was earlier today before the call. They would still like someone to respond. MCSO responded.

-MCSO received report that just past Bunker Hill Road there were about 10 horses on the road. MCSO responded and was unable to locate.

A great big thank you to Pastor Stacy and the folks from the Lone Community Church, and to all who came to the August 23rd BBQ Dinner Fundraiser for our Arlington Nazarene Church, which was destroyed by arson fire last November.

Thank you!

Your thoughtful support is very much appreciated and speaks well of our community. The money raised will help us rebuild our church in the near future. Blessings on all of you!

Sincerely, Pastor David, the Board and the congregation of the Arlington Nazarene Church
