

Heppner FBLA shines at regionals

Heppner FBLA students competed at regionals in La Grande last Thursday for the opportunity to compete at the state level. Those qualifying for state were (pictured except for Patrick Collins and Sophie Grant): Cara Arbogast—Impromptu Speaking; Erica Nelson and Jasmine Garcia—Desktop Publishing; Caitlyn Bailey and Kaelynn Lindsay—Banking and Financial Systems; Emily Cecil and Meranda Lemmon—Entrepreneurship; Ryan Smith, Patrick Collins and C.J. Kindle—Sports and Entertainment Management; Caitlyn Bailey, Ryan Smith and Patrick Collins—Hospitality Management; and Sophie Grant and Taylor Hamby—Digital Design. The state competition will be held at the Double Tree in Portland April 9-12. FBLA advisor Jeannie Collins says fundraising opportunities will be coming, and supporters should be on the lookout for Krispy Kreme doughnut orders. FBLA will also be selling pie and coffee during the Old Time Fiddlers show at the fairgrounds annex on Saturday, March 14, during the St. Patrick's Celebration. —Contributed photo

Community Bank announces first sweepstakes winners

Heppner man among first to win silver bullion

On Jan. 30, Community Bank conducted the first of 12 drawings as part of the Silver Sweepstakes.

In celebration of the bank's 60th anniversary, each month 60 ounces of silver bullion will be given away...one 10-ounce bar each to six lucky winners.

With 14 branches, that will be 14 names—one of each branch—advanced to the prize drawings. A random drawing of six names determines the lucky winners for the month.

January winners included Heppner man Mike Rossman of Heppner. Other area winners were J.P. Nelson from Hermiston; Lorrie Rigdon of Pendleton; Larry Morrison of La Grande; Jeanenne Bowers of Baker City; and LaRae Holm of Clarkston.
