Local students make honor roll at OSU

Several local students have been named to the Oregon State University Scholastic Honor Roll for winter term, the university announced last week.

Local students on the honor roll include:

From Heppner, Devin B. Robinson, senior, agricultural sciences, with a straight-A average, and, with a 3.5 or better, Bryan P. Holland, senior, fisheries and wildlife science.

From Lexington, with a 3.5 or better, Kelsi T. Putman, senior, agricultural business management.

From Ione, with a straight-A average, Mary V. Rietmann, senior, human development and family science.

From Boardman, Sonia A. Barrera, junior, human development and family science, with a straight-A average, and with a 3.5 or better, Alfredo Alvarez-Frias, senior, nutrition; Mayra L. Barrera, senior, biohealth sciences; Cheyenne A. Kennedy, senior, public health; Alejandra Mendoza, senior, mathematics.

From Irrigon, with a 3.5 or better, Adriana Sanchez, junior, accountancy.

A total of 889 students earned straight-A (4.0). Another 3,767 earned a B-plus (3.5) or better to make the listing. To be on the Honor Roll, students must carry at least 12 graded hours of course work.

Three-on-three basketball to raise funds for Ione juniors

The Ione High School junior class will hold a three-on-three basketball competition fundraiser on Thursday, April 9, beginning at 5 p.m.

Cost to enter is $12 per team; all entry forms and liability releases must be received by April 8 at 3:30 p.m. at the latest. Contact Jessie, Jason or Ms. Burghard to enter, Orissa.burghard@ione.k12.or.us.

Teams will be separated into different age groups and games will be played to 15 points.

Players will call their own fouls and ties will be broken with a two-minute overtime. The championship game will be refereed.

For those who prefer to watch the action, entry will be $2 at the gate. Concessions will be available.

4-H horse club has a great 2015 kickoff

The Paint'd Hills 4-H Horse Club met for its third meeting this year at the Sandford home in Ione on Sunday, March 29.

After a short meeting at which the club talked about upcoming events in the 4-H mailer, it was decided to attend Wasco County 4-H horse knowledge contests.

April 11 the club will attend the Wasco County 4-H horse contest held in The Dalles.

The members will compete in knowledge bowl questions, horse health, judging and presentations.

They will also get to meet a lot of other 4-H members from different counties.

After the meeting, the club went to the arena and had a showmanship lesson, western equitation and bareback session. It was a great day for riding.

The next meeting will be April 12, when those
