Frank Harold Hamblet

Frank Harold Hamblet of Pendleton died Wednesday, May 27, 2015, at Walla Walla General Hospital in Walla Walla, WA. He was 89 years old. A Celebration of Life and luncheon will be held Saturday, June 27, at 1 p.m. at the Wheeler County Fairgrounds in Fossil, OR, in the Isobel Edwards Hall. Harold was born January 21, 1926, in Blackwell, OK, to Frank and Ruby (Mahoney) Hamblet. He was an enrolled member of the Creek Nation Indian Tribe, like his mother and grandmother before him. He came to Oregon with his folks when he was 14 years old. Harold thought a lot of his father. He worked in his younger years in the Starkey area, catching and breaking wild horses. He always had horses. Harold served in the United States Navy at the end of World War II as a Fireman First Class. After 11 months overseas duty he returned to Oregon in March of 1946 with an Honorable Discharge. Harold graduated from Reisch Auctioneering School in Mason City, IA in 1959, a very intensive study course that has graduated more than 30,000 men and women. He has sold just about everything—"so now it's time to auction off your kids." He worked as a ranch hand and buckaroo at many ranches in the Alvord Desert, Nevada, Oregon and Idaho, including in South Morrow County. He had also worked as a cat skinner in the logging industry, and drove log truck. He liked music and had a good voice. He enjoyed doing karaoke and insisted on enjoying chocolate daily. Harold is survived by his lady friend Koni Schnetzky of Pendleton,

OR; his children, Judy Volquardsen and husband Jim of Metaline Falls, WA, Linda Bristow and husband John of Ione, and Dwight Ambrose and wife Kathy of Island City, OR; his brother, Harvey Barber and wife Jane of Tillamook, OR; as well as many grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren. Harold was preceded in death by his first wife, Eleanor; his son, Wayne; grandson, Quinn; and wife, June. Sign the online guestbook at www.burnsmortuary.com. Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements.

Jepsen graduates from Whitworth with honors

Local student Rebecca Jepsen was one of 622 undergraduates who received their diplomas as part of Whitworth University's 125th commencement. The event was held on Sunday, May 17, at the Spokane Arena. Jepsen graduated summa cum laude (3.90 - 4.00 GPA) with a bachelor's degree in health science. Jepsen, a 2012 graduate of Ione High School, is the daughter of Bill and Nancy Jepsen and the granddaughter of Bob and Suzanne Jepsen of Heppner. She will begin her studies for a Doctor of Physical Therapy (DPT) degree at the Spokane campus of Eastern Washington University starting this September. Located in Spokane, WA, Whitworth is a private Christian liberal arts university affiliated with the Presbyterian Church. The university, which has an enrollment of nearly 3,000 students, offers 60 undergraduate and graduate degree programs.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester and Lelia Workman of Heppner will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary this month. Lester came to the West Coast from Lancaster, PA and Lelia came from Lowell, MA. They met in Portland in 1987 and were married there June 15, 1990. The couple has 13 children, 29 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. They have lived in Heppner since 2002.

Genovese graduates from Air Force Academy

Angelique Genovese graduated from the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, CO last Thursday with the rank of Lieutenant. The USAFA celebrated 800 graduates at the May 28 event, which also featured a performance by the USAF Thunderbirds above the base after the graduation ceremony. The graduation was attended by Genovese's mother, Rebecca Genovese of Seattle, formerly of Heppner, and her grandfather, Gerald Smith of Heppner. Genovese's brother is also at the Air Force Academy, in his third year of training.

Oregon Wheat Foundation announces scholarship recipients

Two Ione youth, Oskar Peterson and Lauren Garrett, are among nine Oregon students to receive Oregon Wheat Foundation scholarships this year, the organization announced last week. OWF awarded a total of nine $1,000 scholarships to high school seniors, including one scholarship in each of the participating eight counties and one at-large scholarship. Students were judged on their community involvement, academic achievement and an essay on a wheat industry topic.

Oskar Peterson

Peterson plans to study general engineering at Oregon State University. He is a graduating senior from Ione High School and is the son of Joel Peterson and Lea Mathieu. Peterson is student body president this year, plays in the pep band, and participates in basketball, track and field, and art club. He has traveled to Europe on two different occasions with the International Club. Peterson has been involved in numerous school and community activities.

Garrett will attend Washington State University or Oregon State University to study the field of engineering with the intention of majoring in mechanical engineering and minoring in business administration or foreign language. She is the daughter of Mike and Tobey Garrett and is a graduating senior at Ione High School. Her high school activities included basketball, volleyball, golf, band, student government and National Honor Society, as well as International Club her freshman year, when she had the opportunity to travel to Paris. Garrett also is involved with several community activities. Oregon Wheat Foundation Scholarships are open to high school seniors whose parents are members of the Oregon Wheat Growers League or whose parents are employed by members of the organization. The scholarship is also open to students employed by grower members. Scholarship applications for high school graduates are available online at www.owgl.org.
