CARD OF THANKS

At the sound of the alarm, they leave their jobs, families and friends. They miss ball games and fishing trips, birthday parties and barbecues. They spend hours of their personal time in trainings, meetings and equipment repair; not for a paycheck or 401K, but to serve their community in times of need. They show up and work hard, whether it is 4am Saturday morning or 11pm Wednesday night. They go without sleep, miss meals and time with their families. They drop whatever they are doing because you need them. We would like to give a big shout out of special thanks to the Volunteer Fire Fighters of the Willow Creek Valley. Thank you for your time and dedication to your communities.

I would like to thank everyone that made my retirement day so special. I couldn't have asked for a better way to leave the Post office. I enjoyed every person who took the time to bring a flower to me and wish me well, and to all of those who couldn't be there, but had a flower sent. You are all special to me. I love the card that everyone signed. Thank you to Claire and Paige Grieb for designing the card. I LOVED it!
Special thanks to Tricia Gunderson, Rhonda Winters, Janice Huddleston, Shari Ober & Murray's flower shop staff for making it all come together.

It was quite a wonderful surprise!
