

News from the Hardman Community Center

The Hardman Community Center had a short meeting at 5 p.m. on July 29 prior to Bob Allen's retirement potluck.

Fourteen members attended. No minutes were read, as all members had received a copy of them prior.

There is $4,130 in the treasury account and all paperwork is up-to-date.

Mel McDaniel gave an update on the grant writing. Five freestanding grants have been applied for, but the center won't know until December if it has received any of them.

Sylvia Allen updated members on her work with the archives.

All of the photos have new business card-sized tags done on the computer and are laminated. The next step is to digitally record the photos and match them up to the tags and then download it to jump drives so there are multiple copies of the information. Her daughter is helping her with both projects.

Members also discussed the need to label and photograph the antiques as well.

In new business, HCC received a $300 donation from Snow McElligott and a thank-you has been sent. Bob Allen has updated the ghost signs so he can put them out when the hall is open.

Allen also stated that the charge of printing and binding the History of Hardman has gone up to more than the center is charging for the copies but that he felt raising the price in accordance will make them unsalable.

Members discussed printing the brochures on a home computer and binding them in a report cover, but no decision was made.

There is also the option of purchasing a printer for hall use. Claudia Smythe said she will check into the cost of this.

Allen also requested the HCC secretary update an old brochure to replace the History if need be, which she said she would attempt.

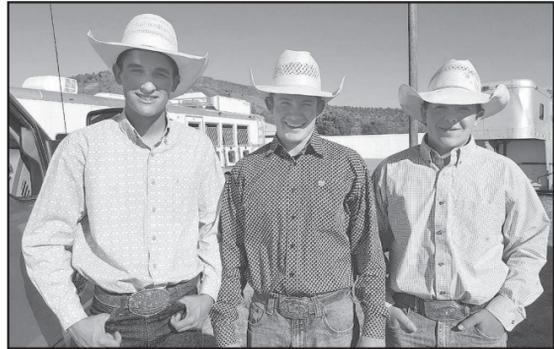

Certificates of Appreciation were presented to Rhonda Wright and Bob Allen before the potluck. The next meeting will be a work day on the kitchen in July, tentatively set for the July 26 at 8 a.m.

4-H members show their commitment to service

Part of the 4-H pledge is "My hands to larger service." The members of the Grow 'Em & Show 'Em 4-H club have shown that, despite their club name, it's not just about selling an animal at fair for these kids. The group met at Turner Day Park recently to sand and re-stain the picnic tables. Once the picnic tables were stained, members helped pick up garbage around the park. After the work was complete, they all met at the Gibbs' for a barbecue. DENVER—Kolby Currin, a 10th-grade student at Heppner Jr./Sr. High School, has earned a position on the Oregon state National High School

Rodeo team. Currin will be traveling with fellow teammates to Rock Springs, WY July 12-18 to compete in the 67th annual National High School Finals Rodeo (NHSFR) in the steer wrestling, cutting and rifle shooting competitions.

Featuring more than 1,500 contestants from 42 states, five Canadian Provinces and Australia, the NHSFR is the world's largest rodeo. In addition to competing for more than $200,000 in prizes, NHSFR contestants will also be competing for more than $350,000 in college scholarships and the chance to be named an NHSFR National Champion. To earn this title, contestants must finish in the top 20—based on their combined times/scores in the first two rounds—to advance to Saturday evening's final round. National champions will then be determined based on their three-round combined times/scores.

Again this year, the Saturday championship performance will be televised nationally as a part of the Cinch Highschool Rodeo Tour telecast series on RFD-TV. Live broadcasts of each NHSFR performance will also air online at NHSRATV.com. Performance times are 7 p.m. on July 12, and 9 a.m. and 7 p.m. each day thereafter.

Erica Nelson competed in Agribusiness, and Caitlynn Bailey and Taylor Hamby competed in Banking and Financial Systems. With the girls were their advisor Jeannie Collins and chapter-
