

Sheriff's Report

December 29 (cont.): -A male in the Lexington area reported that a female went to the residence and busted out the front window of the residence. She then left the house southbound toward the next farm. Female was intoxicated.

December 30: -A caller in Irrigon advised Morrow County Sheriff's Office that they were flagged down by male subjects walking because a friend with them had started to seize. The caller advised that the males advised their friend was on spice.

-MCSO was advised of a motor vehicle accident on Hwy. 74, Heppner. A mini-van was crashed on the side of the road, turned sideways and blocking most of the lane. A female and two young males. It looked like everyone was okay.

MCSO received report from Irrigon of a child who was believed to be underage who had to drive his parents to the clinic because both his parents were highly intoxicated. His father had punched a vase and had porcelain imbedded in his hand.

-A driver on hwy. 74 near Bunker Hill Rd. advised a deer ran across the highway in front of her but there was another vehicle coming from the other direction. The caller was worried that the other vehicle hit the deer but wasn't sure because she was around the corner by that time. MCSO was unable to locate anything.

December 31: -A person in Irrigon reported to Morrow County Sheriff's Office that someone stole the license plates off their vehicle. The plates went missing Dec. 24.

-MCSO investigated property owned by the Corp of Engineers in Irrigon; someone was barricading a footpath with branches.

-A couple at Cutsforth Park requested assistance from a deputy; they needed help getting out of their cabin. She possibly had a broken arm and he had an injured shoulder. They declined medical assistance.

-A woman in Lexington reported that there had been a dog chained up at a vacant residence across the street for at least two weeks. She had taken it food and water but didn't believe it was being fed. MCSO took the incident under investigation.

January 1: -A male called 911 sounding out of breath. He advised that he needed help. The phone was then disconnected. Boardman PD and Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded and located the male walking near Riverside High School. Boardman Ambulance responded and transported the subject to Good Shepherd Hospital.

-MCSO was advised that a vehicle was on fire in Irrigon.

-A caller in Irrigon advised MCSO that he heard two loud booms in the area in the last 15 minutes, louder than fireworks and for sure not gunshots. Could not see and fire or evidence of explosion. MCSO responded but was unable to locate anything suspicious.

-A man in the Heppner area advised MCSO that he had returned home from vacation and all three of his sheep had been killed. He believed it was an animal because there was blood everywhere and they were all torn up.

-A male in Irrigon reported that an unwanted male subject was in their residence, intoxicated and breaking belongings in the caller's house; caller advised that he was unable to stop him because he was in a wheelchair and his mother was unable to stop him because she had been ill and was weak. They were outside staying away from the subject. MCSO responded and arrested Lloyd Allen Terpening, 54, for Criminal Mischief II, Disorderly Conduct II and Harassment.

-A male in Irrigon advised MCSO that he was corresponding with his sister via Facebook and she advised him she was just assaulted by her mother's boyfriend. Both the mother and the boyfriend were intoxicated and had left in a vehicle with a 14-year-old several minutes before.

January 2: -Morrow County Sheriff's Office received report of a suspicious extended cab black Ford Ranger pickup driving through private property on Paul Smith Rd. in Boardman.

-MCSO received report of a male subject coming out of a house on Chase St. in Heppner that morning. The caller went inside the residence and discovered his pistol was missing.

-MCSO received report of a car stolen from Moses Lake, WA.

-MCSO received report of subjects on Hwy. 207-Spray neglecting their animals and not feeding their cats or chickens. The caller also believed there were suspicious circumstances surrounding the disappearance of their puppy. The caller requested a deputy conduct a welfare check.

-MCSO received request from a male to have a deputy call his ex-wife to tell her to call her kids directly to speak with them and not call him. He said that they have a restraining order between them and he didn't want to talk to her.

-MCSO received report from a subject on I-84 East, Boardman, that a USA Logistics semi truck was harassing her and brake checking. She said she was in a U-Haul van and the semi was pushing her up to 70 mph. The call was referred to another agency.

-Boardman Fire Department received report of a car on fire on the road to the entrance of Columbia River Dairy. Boardman Fire Department responded and put out the fire.

-Heppner Ambulance received report of a 44-year-old female diabetic on dialysis with pain in her abdomen, vomiting, frail and weak, with high blood pressure. She was transported.

January 3: -A female in Heppner advised Morrow County Sheriff's office that she was concerned because her son was out past curfew and had been hanging out with sketchy people. An MCSO deputy searched for the juvenile.

-A male in Ione advised MCSO that his neighbor's trash was lying in the street. They put their trash can out and it spilled. The can and trash were left out all week; the neighbors picked up the trash can but not the trash. A deputy contacted the subjects and advised them of the trash and that, if it was not cleaned up, they could be cited for littering. The trash was cleaned up.

-MCSO was advised of the theft of a 1994 white Blazer some time during the night. The thief also went into the residence and took a television set.

-A male caller advised MCSO he wanted to make a complaint against his mail carrier. He advised she had made complaints against them for not taking care of their animals, which were unfounded. He also advised that when she dropped off the mail, she stayed for 15-20 minutes feeding the animals. MCSO contacted both parties and the female was trespassed from the caller's property.

-A man in Heppner contacted MCSO to find out his options concerning a custody issue; he wanted to be advised of options sending his kids to Seattle for visitations when he didn't think it was a safe environment. A deputy contacted the male and advised him he would need to speak to his attorney since it occurred in Washington.

-MCSO was advised of a dead deer in a backyard in

Ione Summer Reading wraps up with 'Home Grown Heroes'

Dragon Theater Puppets' founder and one-man show Jason Ropp presented his "Home Grown Heroes" puppet show at the Ione City Park on July 21. At the end of the show, Ropp invited the audience to come up to his stage and meet the eight different puppets. He also answered questions and explained how he can manipulate his voice for each puppet's unique sound. The puppet show and root beer floats for everyone concluded the Ione Public Library's Summer Reading Program of "Every Hero Has a Story." -Contributed photo

Heppner.

-A male in Heppner asked to speak to a deputy regarding a female at home. The parties were separated and the caller would not go back to the residence until he spoke with a deputy.

-MCSO was advised that Tri-County arrested Michael Mullikin, 31, on Morrow County warrant for Failure to Appear on Criminal Trespass II. Subject was lodged at NORCOR.

-A caller at Heppner Shell advised that it appeared someone was passed out in a car in the parking lot, as the vehicle was on and the engine had been revving for approximately 10 minutes. MCSO responded and determined that the driver was not passed out or intoxicated; she was letting her vehicle warm up.

January 4: -A male called and advised Morrow County Sheriff's Office that he was concerned because his son went to a wedding in Ione the previous night and they had not been able to contact him. He was concerned he may have slide off the road due to the icy conditions. The male later called back and advised their son had contacted them; he had stayed with some friends in Ione.

-MCSO received report of a single-vehicle roll-over on I-84 east near Boardman. The vehicle was a pickup and was on the median. MCSO, Boardman Ambulance, Boardman fire, Boardman PD and Oregon State Police all responded. Patients were transported to Good Shepherd Hospital.

-MCSO was advised that a white Nissan slid into the median on I-84 west near Boardman. The vehicle did not roll, but spun in a circle several times. Boardman fire and Oregon State Police responded. No injuries, the vehicle just slid off the road.

-MCSO received a call from Bucknum's in Heppner advising a customer had her wallet stolen off the bar 20-3 minutes before. No suspect description was available.

-A female in Heppner reported a domestic disturbance going on the apartment below hers. She advised she heard a female screaming and that it sounded like things were falling and being knocked over. A deputy responded and determined it was verbal only. The parties were separated.

-A male in Ione advised his car was stolen; he had noticed it was gone about an hour ago, and saw it last night around 9 p.m. the vehicle was found and the male did not wish to press charges.

-A caller in Irrigon advised there was a large owl in their back yard, covered in ice. It was about the size of a large raccoon.

-The FBI called and regarding the conditions of a stalking order. MCSO provided the information.

January 5: -Morrow County Sheriff's Office Deputy made contact with a subject at A.C. Houghton Elementary School parking lot in Irrigon at 2:09 a.m. She reported that she retired that day and was cleaning out her classroom.

-MCSO received report of a motor vehicle accident from a subject who said he picked up his friend about 20 miles out of Arlington toward Boardman, walking on I-84. The caller said his friend's vehicle was under water and he had been walking for four hours. MCSO, Boardman Police Department, Boardman Ambulance and Oregon State Police responded. He was transported from the Boardman Shell Station to Good Shepherd Hospital.

-MCSO received report of the theft of a wooden carved bear that occurred about a month and a half previous. The caller said he just got it returned that day.

-MCSO received report from an Irrigon man that he was having trouble with his neighbors spraying his dogs with something. The incident was under investigation.

-MCSO received report of tumbleweeds that were starting to get bad at an Irrigon residence that was under the responsibility of a property management company.

-MCSO received report of a motor vehicle accident on Butter Creek Rd., Echo, on a blind corner. The driver was complaining of a sore mid-section, but had no other obvious injuries.

-MCSO received report of a mailbox on Hwy. 207 hit over the weekend.

-MCSO received report of a steer loose on Kunze Lane, Boardman. MCSO responded, but was unable to locate the animal.

-MCSO received report from a woman in Irrigon that two puppies keep coming on her property and they have destroyed her yard and dragged garbage all over the road.

-MCSO received report from the city of Heppner that they had received calls about a border collie that had jumped out of a white Dodge dually pickup and was left there. She said the dog was trying to get into other people's pickups.

-MCSO received report from a man on Chase St. in Heppner that his residence was broken into the last weekend. He said he hadn't noticed anything missing, but it looks like they tried to get in through a downstairs window because there were pry marks.

-MCSO received report from a subject in Irrigon that a 15-year-old male was not listening to his father.

-MCSO received report from a subject on Hwy. 74, Ione, who said someone hit a deer that was sitting on its hindquarters in a ditch and she was afraid the deer would make it back into the road and get hit again.

-MCSO received report from Umatilla County Sheriff's Office that a subject with no valid operator's license in a blue Ford Ranger had left Umatilla and was possibly heading to Irrigon. A deputy responded that he was out of position, but would keep his eye out for the vehicle that night.

-Boardman Ambulance received request for an ambulance for a 16-year-old male who was breathing, but not alert and not able to move his arms or legs. He was transported to Good Shepherd Hospital in Hermiston.

January 6: Morrow County Sheriff's Office received request from a Heppner woman who requested that a cat be picked up.

-MCSO received report of a dog, possibly a black cocker spaniel in the middle of the road on the hill dropping down into Ruggs from company.

-Continued on PAGE EIGHT

Get Your Yearly Mammogram!

Thursday, July 30th
8:30am - 2:00pm
Pioneer Memorial Hospital
544 E. Pioneer Drive
Heppner, OR 97836

early detection saves lives. it's that simple.

Mammograms provided by:
Assured Imaging
 women's wellness

As the nation's leading mobile mammography provider, we employ dedicated breast imaging radiologists, technologists and medical assistants that partner together to bring you the professional, personalized care you deserve!

Call to schedule your appointment:
541.676.2948

Murray's Gift Registry

Laurie Murray & Sean Wood Wedding - September 5

Kylie Doherty & Kyle Simpkins Wedding - September 12

Ty Pihl & Dakata Moss Wedding - August 22

Murray's Drug, 217 N. Main, Heppner • Phone 676-9158