Next Monday, Aug. 10, at 7 p.m. the Boardman Marina Park will host Eric Jepsen and John Wambeke as part of its free Music in the Parks program.

Wambeke and Jepsen have been playing music together for more than 10 years, and have put together an eclectic collection of some foot-tapping downhome tunes and original humorous songs. They promise it will be a "great combination of guitar and fiddle that will have you singing along."

To get to Boardman Marina Park from I-84, take exit 164 and turn north toward the river on Main St. Continue north about half a mile and turn left on Marine Drive.

A View from the Hill

By Doris Brosnan

The "Welcome" mat was out when Bonnie Gates moved into an apartment at Willow Creek Terrace on July 13. Bonnie's new neighbors are in for a treat when they see her creative jewelry-making talents.

The variety of talents of this community on the Hill might be evidenced at the Morrow County Fair this month, as residents traditionally have a strong showing at the event.

That same week, some residents will also show up at the next Music in the Park event in Heppner. They can be sure that on the 16th, they will be entertained, amused and delighted by the Wambeke music.

Only three residents were able to attend the park concert on July 19, but the Terrace was the place for everyone to be on the Fourth, when fireworks did fire up Independence-Day spirits but did not fire up the landscape.

The rest of July was calmer and offered opportunities for morning discussions on diverse topics ranging from To Kill a Mockingbird, to baseball, Disneyland, Special Olympics, and cowboys (at least one lives at the Terrace). Discussion on Parents' Day, the 26th, included memories on parents, being parents, and then being grandparents. And Father-in-Law Day on the 30th was loaded with comments....

Days celebrating foods continued to be of interest at the Terrace in July: Hershey Kiss Day, Fried Chicken Day, Strawberry Sundae Day and then the all-inclusive Sundae Sunday, Penuche Fudge Day, Ice Cream Cone Day, and Jelly Bean Day. The hot days of August will promise some delicious occasions, too, including Root Beer Float Day on the 6th and Peach Pie Day on the 24th.

August discussions have begun with "Sisters" (Aug. 2), which resulted in much reminiscing. "Daughters" and "Family" (9th) will surely create some lively discussion. Lefthanders will be celebrated on the 13th, so Barbara Struthers and Billie Lacey should feel especially special that day. Best Friends Day will stimulate many fond memories and memories in the making on the 15th, and Poets Day on the 21st will encourage the sharing of one's favorite poets and poems. Interesting to contemplate what the discussion might be on Tooth Fairy Day (22nd).

Investigation of teeth marks proves without doubt that the culprits responsible for the trimming of the Terrace's tomato plants and the once-beautiful blossoms in planters at the entry are the deer, the bold deer. Since the staff and residents gave up on a garden this year, because of their last-year deer problem, they are fortunate to have garden produce from good neighbors. This past month, Tallmans, Bud Wilson's family, and the Strutherses shared their bounties.

Another fantastic and unexpected donation to Willow Creek Terrace recently came from some Heppner High School graduates. The 160 people who attended the "Celebrate the 60s" reunion for the classes of 1960 through 1969 shared their extra cash after expenses with the Community on the Hill. This thoughtfulness, so greatly appreciated, is another example of the kindnesses that everyone at the Terrace has a view of almost every week.

Reunion celebrates the 60s, honors teachers, classmates

Saturday, July 25, at the Heppner Elks club, the class of 1965 and friends honored three special classmates and teachers as part of the "Celebrate the 60s" class reunion.

Millie Hanna was honored as a primary school teacher and mother of two classmates who is still going strong in her 90s.

Doris Morris Brosnan was honored as an organizer of the reunion for the class of '61 and a high school teacher for two years at Heppner doing the 60s, and for her years of labor to make Heppner a better place to live.

Jan Hagar Evans was honored as the tireless behind-the-scenes organizer who made things happen.

More than 150 classmates, spouses and friends attended the dinner that Saturday, and many more enjoyed the 60s music and dance.

The 60s classes also raised $500 for the Willow Creek Assisted Living, $300 for the Heppner High School alumni fund and $550 in tips for the Heppner FFA.
