CARD OF THANKS

The class of 1965 would like to thank the many community organizations that helped make our class reunion a fabulous experience. The Heppner Elks club was a joy to work with as usual. Patty and her crew put on a great dinner both nights. The remodeled Willow Creek Golf clubhouse was an unexpected treat. Sixties music on main street speakers still belting out the tunes at midnight, how thoughtful. Gateway coffee shop opening up specially Sunday morning for breakfast, so appreciated. The 'talking rocks' tour and both museum being open was greatly appreciated as well. Thanks Heppner for showing Heppner alumni a wonderful time. Makes you proud to hail from Heppner. We will be back.
