Hello Everybody

Hello Brothers and Sisters! I don't know if those are the best titles to use in a christian salutation. Maybe, "Hello Saints" would be better. I wonder what we will call each other in heaven since there will be no gender distinctions. (Matt.22:30) I guess it doesn't matter what we call each other. The important thing is that we understand in the kingdom of God there is neither Jew or Greek, bond nor free, male nor female, for we are all one in Christ Jesus. (Gal. 3:28) In other words there are no gender distinctions, no racial distinctions and no cultural distinctions. Hey, maybe there won't even be Baptist, Methodist and Pentecostal distinctions! There are only Christians and non-christians. Well, actually, in heaven there will only be Christians: the non-christians will be some place else!

We have all been saddened by the racial riots and killings which have recently rocked our nation. I am happy to say, "I have not observed this kind of bigotry in Heppner." Christian Life Center will soon be getting a visually impaired black pastor. I believe Heppner is ready! My wife and I have received a warm and friendly welcome by all the good people in Heppner and I rejoice in the confidence that the next pastor will be received just as cordially.

Heppner is a great little town. We have certainly enjoyed our time here! Thank you Heppner for letting us be a part of you. I know Heppner, and its churches, including Christian Life Center, have a great future: they are made up of great people with a great God. I hope to see all of you in heaven. I promise you that I will be diligent to maintain my relationship with the Lord by holiness of lifestyle, continual prayer and study of the word, and by consistent church involvement. I hope you determine the same for yourself! Please don't gamble with your soul! Eternity is to long to endure: hell is too terrible to experience: and heaven is too wonderful to miss. Don't take it for granted everything will be okay: make sure! I do want to meet you again in heaven! God bless you all,
Former Pastor David Jenkins
