

Sheriff's Report

September 14: -A person in Lexington called Morrow County Sheriff's Office and requested contact regarding a dog locked in a kennel at a vacant house and barking all the time.

-MCSO received report of a female in Irrigon who was unconscious and not breathing. The caller advised that his neighbor had just run across the street for him to call. The female was transported to Good Shepherd Hospital.

-MCSO received report of a domestic disturbance in progress in Heppner. A deputy responded and determined it was verbal only.

-MCSO, Boardman PD, Boardman fire and Boardman ambulance responded to a motor vehicle accident between a spud truck and a semi in the Boardman area. A male subject was transported to Good Shepherd Hospital. Sukhjinder Singh, 37, was cited for Fail to Yield.

-A male in Irrigon advised that his ex-wife was at the residence and wouldn't leave. She took his keys and hid them and broke items in the home. MCSO responded and the parties agreed to stay in separate trailers for the evening.

-A female in Boardman reported that a friend received a package addressed to the caller's husband; this was the second time this had occurred. The woman advised the package does not belong to them, and inside there was a letter stating not to tell anyone what was inside and that they participated in a survey. Requested contact regarding the packages. MCSO responded and the caller would be sending back the packages.

-A female requested a welfare on her husband in the Boardman area; he was 83 years old and not answering the phone, and had lung problems. MCSO made contact with the subject. Everything was okay. He was unaware his wife was trying to contact him.

September 15: -A Morrow County Sheriff's Office deputy advised checking out a disabled vehicle in the Boardman area. MCSO arrested Gordon Rock, 47, on an Oregon State Parole Board warrant for Parole Violation on Dangerous Drugs. Subject was lodged at Umatilla County Jail with no bail.

-MCSO received report of an injured deer in Heppner. It did not appear to be able to get up and was blocking the roadway.

-A female called MCSO and requested to speak with a police officer. MCSO arrested Jose Vielmas Carvajal, 55, for Violation of Restraining Order.

-A male in Irrigon advised two dogs were killing his mom's chickens. MCSO responded and transported two dogs to Pet Rescue.

-A female in Irrigon advised MCSO that she went and took back a vehicle that her attorney advised her she was still part owner of. She advised that she wanted MCSO to know where it was if the other party tried to report it stolen.

-MCSO was advised that some devices on a Boardman property had been removed, destroyed and replaced. The caller stated that 24 of the devices had been destroyed and they cost between $2,000 and $5,000. MCSO took the incident under investigation.

-A female in Heppner advised of a small SUV driven by an older female whom she believed to be intoxicated. There was also an older male in the vehicle. The caller stated the vehicle pulled over and switched drivers. MCSO made contact with the vehicle and the driver and determined the driver was not intoxicated.

-MCSO received a theft report; the caller stated that some apartments in Heppner were having property damage and items stolen from them by kids who lived in the apartment complex and one who did not.

September 16: -Morrow County Sheriff's Office was advised by a caller in the Boardman area of a bull in a pasture that had wire wrapped around its back leg. The caller advised it was a lot of wire; there were fence posts still attached that the bull was dragging with it. MCSO responded and determined the animal did not seem to be in distress. The possible owner was contacted and would check on the animals. If it was not their bull, they would notify the owner.

-A female in Heppner advised MCSO that a male had pulled into the driveway and looked around from the vehicle for a few minutes and then went back toward town. The caller gave a description of the car and advised that the deputy told her to call back if he came back. She also advised that the male had tried to run her husband down in that vehicle before.

-A female in Irrigon stated that she received a call from her neighbors stating that the caller's dog got out and killed a lot of the caller's other animals. The stated that one of her other dogs was badly injured and needed to be put down and that the dog doing the attacking needed to be euthanized. She requested contact at her residence.

-MCSO received a report of the theft of tools and miscellaneous objects at an Irrigon location. A deputy responded and took a report.

September 17: -Morrow County Sheriff's Office received report of a motor vehicle accident near the Irrigon Shell, male versus pickup, unknown injuries. MCSO, Irrigon fire and Irrigon ambulance responded. Oregon State Police handled the wreck.

-MCSO was advised that Ryan Jay Ellis, 50, was served a Morrow County Circuit Court warrant for Failure to Appear on Felon Possess a Firearm and Possession of Methamphetamine. The subject was lodged at Idaho Correctional Institution-Orofino with Morrow County holds placed.

-Frontier Dispatch requested MCSO handle a welfare check on I-84 E near Boardman; they had received report of a bicyclist lying near the roadway. The subject had waved at the original caller. A deputy responded. The male was on his way back to Colorado and did not need assistance.

-An MCSO officer reported being out with a disabled semi on Hwy. 207 Echo-Lexington. The truck was blocking on full lane and was out of fuel.

-MCSO received a report of a vehicle blocking the road by the court house and subjects arguing in the street. A deputy responded and a male was given a courtesy ride to Umatilla.

-A person requested a welfare check on a male in Irrigon, and advised the male had received bad news earlier and told the caller he had a shotgun. MCSO responded and made contact -Continued on PAGE SEVEN

Electric co-op accepting applications for D.C. youth tour

Columbia Basin Electric Cooperative offices in Heppner and Condon will be accepting applications for the 2016 Washington D.C. Youth Tour now through Dec. 17.

"At CBEC, we take great pride in highlighting the value of cooperative membership to children," stated a co-op release. "After all, they are our members-in-training. We provide a variety of programs that benefit young people, from safety demonstrations to sponsoring youth activities across our five-county service territory."

Each year, CBEC sends two high school juniors on an all-expense-paid trip (except spending money) to Washington, D.C. During the annual Washington D.C. Youth Tour, more than 15,000 high school students from across the country descend on Washington, D.C.

to learn about government, history, and the role of electric cooperatives.

Applications are open to all current high school juniors whose parents or guardians receive electrical service from CBEC.

The 2016 Washington Youth Tour will take place June 9-6, 2016. Applications are available at local high schools or on the CBEC website, www.cbec.cc.

OSP was assisted by the Morrow County Sheriff's Office.

ELECTION RESULTS

Meanwhile, 76 percent of Lexington voters voted to approve the renewal of a $2 per $1,000 five-year local option tax, with only 16 dissenting votes to 51 assenting. This tax will be used for operating revenue for the Lexington Fire Department. Lexington fire officials said that, without the tax, the fire department would no longer be able to operate, replace or purchase new equipment. The tax is expected to raise a total of $112,644 over the five years.

If You Bought a TV, Monitor, or Notebook Computer That Contained an LCD Flat Panel Screen, During the Years 2002 to 2006, You May be Entitled to Benefits from a Settlement.

Please read this notice carefully as your legal rights are affected whether you act or do not act.

PARA UNA NOTIFICACION EN ESPANOL, LLAMAR O VISITAR NUESTRO WEBSITE.

The Oregon Attorney General filed a lawsuit against certain manufacturers of liquid crystal display ("LCD") flat panels. The lawsuit alleges that LCD manufacturers illegally agreed upon the pricing of LCD-flat panels. The Attorney General filed this action in her law enforcement capacity and on behalf of the State of Oregon, Oregon natural persons, and all political subdivisions in Oregon and sought equitable relief, restitution, civil penalties and injunctive relief.

Oregon has settled with all defendants for a total of $21,505,000 ("Settlement Fund"). The State of Oregon, political subdivisions and Oregon natural persons may be entitled to a portion of the Settlement Fund. "Political subdivisions" includes all Oregon counties, cities, municipalities, public universities, school districts, special districts, and all other local government entities. "Oregon natural persons" means a human, not a business.

Who is Included?

The State of Oregon and all Oregon political subdivisions or natural persons who indirectly purchased at any time during the years 2002 to 2006, for their own use and not for resale, LCD panels incorporated in flat panel TVs, monitors or notebook computers. An indirect purchaser is someone that purchased products containing LCD flat panels from someone other than the company that manufactured the flat panel component, such as from an electronics retailer or a device manufacturer other than one of the Defendants.

What Are My Rights And Options?

Exclude yourself: Oregon political subdivisions and Oregon natural persons have the right to exclude themselves from this action. The State of Oregon cannot be excluded. If you opt out, you will not be legally bound by this settlement, but you will not get any money or other benefits from this settlement. You will retain any rights you currently have, if any. Please note that under Oregon law, authority to bring antitrust actions for indirect purchaser claims, like this action, was limited to actions by the Attorney General until January 1, 2010.

To opt-out, complete the opt-out registration online at www.OregonScreenSettlement.com or send a written letter stating that you want to be excluded from the case: State of Oregon, ex rel Ellen F. Rosenblum v. AU Optronics Corp. et al., case no.

CV 10-933 MO. The letter must include the case name, your name, address, telephone number, and signature. A letter on behalf of a political subdivision must include the entity's name, and the name, title, and signature of the person authorized to sign on behalf of the entity. The letter must be postmarked on or before January 15, 2016, and mailed to: Oregon LCD Settlement, c/o GCG, P.O. Box 10240, Dublin, Ohio 43017-5740.

File a claim: Only Oregon natural persons need to file a claim to obtain benefits in this settlement. Claims can be completed online or by mailing the claim form, available for download at www.OregonScreenSettlement.com, to the Settlement Administrator. A deadline for filing claims has not yet been established. The State of Oregon and political subdivisions that are owed money under the distribution plan will be contacted and sent payment without any further action on their part.

Do nothing: If you or the political subdivision you represent do nothing, you will continue to be represented by the Oregon Attorney General. You will be bound by the terms of this settlement, and will release Defendants and related entities from any claims you may have relating to the allegations in this lawsuit. Oregon natural persons that do not file a claim will not be entitled to any benefits in this matter and will be bound by the terms of the settlement.

Who Represents Me?

The Attorney General of Oregon represents the State, Oregon political subdivisions, and Oregon natural persons. You do not have to pay the Attorney General. The Attorney General will request the Court approve attorney fees in an amount not to exceed 20% of the total Settlement Fund, plus costs and expenses. Additional costs to administer the Settlements will also come out of the Settlement Fund. If you want to be represented by your own lawyer, and have that lawyer appear in Court for you, you must exclude yourself and hire an attorney at your own expense.

How Do I Get More Information?

This Notice summarizes the lawsuits and the Settlements. You can get more information about the lawsuits and Settlements, the claims process or obtain a claim form at www.OregonScreenSettlement.com, by calling 1-877-940-7791, or writing to: Oregon LCD Settlement, c/o GCG, P.O.
