Thank You The Board of Directors of the South Morrow County Neighborhood Center would like to thank the Heppner High School Football Team and Cheerleaders for all their hard work in collecting 1070 pounds of food for the November 2nd Community Food Drive in Heppner and Lexington. Thank you to our communities for once again coming through for the less fortunate in our communities. Thank you to the Parents and Coach Greg Grant, all of your teens were so respectful, courteous and willing to do whatever was asked of them. Please accept our apology if for some reason your house was missed during the collection drive. Once again thank you for your continued support of the Heppner Neighborhood Center.

The Ione Cardinal Volleyball Team would like to send a huge thank you out to all of their fans. It was amazing to see all the fans at Ione during the state playoff game and in Redmond to support us during the Oregon State Volleyball Tournament. We appreciate all of the words of encouragement, assemblies, inspirational sayings put on our lockers, signs, treats sent with us on the bus, and t-shirts showing support for our team. It is great living in a community that supports their school and activities so much! We are proud to be Cardinals. Thanks again to Everyone!! We Love You!
