Sheriff’s Report

-Continued from PAGE FIVE sponded and made contact with the male, who stated he was not going to do anything and did have family with him now. MCSO advised the male there were counselors he could talk to but he declined.

-MCSO was advised that an intoxicated mother was at an elementary school in Irrigon and wanted to drive her children home. The school was keeping the kids in the office and requested a deputy to respond. MCSO responded and gave the mother and children a courtesy ride to their residence.

-A person in Irrigon advised that a suicidal male was at a location looking for a deputy. The caller stated the male might be in his car, which was parked in front of the parents’ house next door. He was on the cell phone talking to a counselor earlier. The caller advised he tried to calm him down. The male still had the caller’s phone and was trying to get him to give him a weapon to use but he did not, and wanted police to know where to find him.

-A caller in Irrigon advised a male was getting aggressive with the male’s father; the male was upset about a court ruling and a stalking order not being dismissed. MCSO responded and made contact with the subject and all others at the residence. The family of the subject advised they would stay with him that night and did not believe he was a threat that night.

-A man in Irrigon advised MCSO that his 14-year-old daughter ran away. He advised she may have gone to Pendleton with a friend; he had heard from her a couple hours ago but now she wouldn’t reply. MCSO made contact with the caller, who signed the juvenile as a missing runaway. An ATL was sent and an entry made into Law Enforcement Data System.
