 was advised of a van down by the river in Irrigon, high-centered in an area it wasn't supposed to be in. The caller advised there were four occupants in the van and they were under some form of intoxication. They tried to get the caller to tow them out but the caller did not have a rope and called MCSO.

-MCSO was advised of a female punching herself in the face at an Irrigon residence. The caller was at the neighbor's house.

-A female advised a pickup was in front of her house and a male was on his way from Ione to pick up the pickup, which he hadn't paid for. She advised she didn't want him to take the pickup unless he came up with $400. She advised she was clear up in Hardman but would be off shortly.

November 22: -Boardman PD was stopped at the Bank of Eastern Oregon, Boardman, and advised of a domestic that had just occurred. Ciera Rachele Henderson, 22, was arrested by Morrow County Sheriff's Office on a Union County warrant.

 man fire, Boardman ambulance, ODOT and Oregon State Police responded to a motor vehicle accident on I-84 west, Boardman.
 A female advised a deer hit her windshield and ran off. The vehicle was off the road. She advised that she did hit her head. Patient was transported.

-MCSO received a
 complaint from a female in Heppner who said her house had been broken into sometime the previous night, she believed through the window. It was determined to be wind damage, not criminal.

-A female in Boardman advised she was looking for her dog and a male stopped and offered help and was now following her. MCSO responded and cited Adrian Cervantes, 35, for No Ops.

-A male in Irrigon advised MCSO that suspicious transactions were made with his Banner Bank account. About $900 was deposited into his account and then pulled out of the account; the checks that were deposited did not clear. The caller advised he did not make these transaction and as far as he knows no one has access to his account number.

 male in Irrigon reported a pickup parked in front of her residence for at least 10 minutes; she advised she had never seen it in the area before. She advised it took off toward the post office.
 MCSO contacted the vehicle at the Irrigon Shell and advised the subject of the complaint. Subject stated it was not him but the vehicle matched the description the caller had given.
