Arbuckle Ski Club

This week the Arbuckle Ski Club traveled south on Highway 207 to the Bull Prairie junction, where they parked. They then skied west on the Forest Service 25 road to the 400 road, then south of the 400 road to a good lunch spot and a great fire. Snow conditions were good and they reported only a few snow showers during the trip. Pictured (L-R): Andrew Johnson, Steve Brownfield, Terry Harper, Ann Morter, Kristy Crowell, Dave Fowler, and Sandra and Dan VanLiew. The outlook is for snow conditions to remain good, so the group invites more participants to join in next Saturday. -Contributed photo

Math students collecting donations for Doernbecher

Heppner High School math students will be collecting donations for Doernbecher Children's Hospital in Portland now through Feb. 12. Drop boxes will be available at Murray's Drug and Heppner Family Foods. The students are encouraging donations of school supplies, books, toys and games. All donations must be new.

Items on the Doernbecher wish list include: school supplies such as small dry erase boards, dry erase markers, plastic clip boards, reams of standard printer paper, lamination plastic sheets, #2 pencils, glue bottles and glue sticks, markers, crayons, sharpies, designer pocket folders and spiral notebooks, air drying clay, window art replacement paint, acrylic and watercolor paints (tubes or palettes), fabric paint, and paintables such as water color paper, canvas, masks, boxes and t-shirts. The hospital also asks for popular, award winning or classic books for kindergarten through 12th grade, and gift cards to popular stores.

Cash and checks (made out to Heppner High School) will also be accepted. Monies will go to purchase needed items.

The students also will be sewing blankets in the HHS library on Feb. 3 and Feb. 9 from 4-8 p.m. for those who want to participate. Blankets also must be made from new material with sewn edges and no knotted edges.

Contact Troy Morgan at HHS for more details, 541-676-9138.

CONDON CELEBRATES BURNS

centuries, in reciting Burns' most recited works at the Burns Supper—"To a Haggis," and one of his most animated poems, "Tam O'Shanter."

Others are welcomed to perform readings, recitations and musical renditions of Burns' works.

A shortbread contest has become a popular part of the event, with the top three winners singled out, but with unique prizes made available to all who enter. Details of the shortbread contest may be obtained by calling Jannie Allen, 541-571-9507.

The afternoon event, which begins at 2 p.m. with the program ending about 5 p.m., generally continues on into the evening with continued music from the pipers. Admission is $17 per person, $30 per couple. Tickets are available at the Times-Journal on Condon's historic Main Street and at the door. A limited menu of soup, sandwiches and salad bar will be available at the Elks Lodge dining room until into the evening.

For additional information, call 541-384-2421.

Sheriff's Report

-MCSO was notified that Hermiston PD arrested Kelly Lee Ramberg, 45, on a Morrow County Circuit Court warrant for Failure to Appear on a charge of Harassment. Suspect was lodged at Umatilla County Jail with no bail.

-MCSO was advised that a vehicle was broken down about two miles above the OHV park. The caller advised it was a male driver by the name of Terrence and that the vehicle was broken down in the middle of the road. The caller was not familiar with who the subject was.

-A woman in Heppner advised there was a deer stuck in the fence between her residence and the neighbor's.

-MCSO was advised of a male suffering from Alzheimer's who had been missing for the last four to five hours. The caller stated the subject was homeless and the subject's girlfriend was also out looking for him. Caller requested deputy contact.

-A woman in Irrigon advised that her 11-year-old grandson was visiting and one of her 14-year-old grandson's friends took his cell phone and had been using it.

November 30: -Morrow County Sheriff's Office received a report of suspicious activity at Ione school.

-Morrow County Sheriff reported being out with a possible disable vehicle on Hwy. 730, Irrigon. Vehicle was a broken-down service truck but another truck arrived to repair it while the sheriff was on the scene.

-A person in Irrigon reported a welder mounted on a trailer was taken over the weekend. The caller provided serial numbers for both the welder and the trailer.

-A person in Irrigon reported a dog with its head stuck between two cinder blocks and unable to get loose. The caller requested a deputy go and check it out.

-A female in Ione reported that her son was at the residence breaking belongings in the garage. MCSO responded and determined that no crime had been committed, the subject took something from the garage that belonged to him and nothing was damaged. However, the subject and a female subject were trespassing from the residence.

-MCSO received report of suspicious activity in a Heppner business; a situation with a little girl, ripped her shirt and broke her glasses, and was trying to get her to go with "him." The 13-year-old female was refusing to leave. They were in the office currently and refusing to leave.

-A female in Heppner reported that her father-in-law just left her residence intoxicated, driving a flat-bed pickup.

-MCSO received a report of telephone harassment; a male out of Echo reported a female kept calling and texting from her cell phone harassing him. The male provided the female's phone number and advised no threats, but she was trying to break up the male and his wife. The male requested telephone contact for options. MCSO made contact with Pendleton PD for assistance. Both subjects were advised not to contact each other.

-Community Counseling Solutions in Heppner reported that "the juvenile from earlier" was causing problems.

-A male in Irrigon reported that his ex-wife was at a location trying to see the kids and he did not want her there. MCSO responded and determined that the male had full custody of the children. The female will make the agreed-upon arrangements next time she wants to see the children.

-Hermiston PD requested assistance to see if two juveniles were at an Irrigon location. They were allowed to be there but Hermiston PD needed to make sure they were okay before removing them from Law Enforcement Data Systems (LEDS) as run-aways. MCSO responded and both juveniles were at the residence.
