CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of my mother Bernice, brother Michael, my niece and nephew Jenessa and Lance Lott, and my children Conner and Emily Pappas, I would like to extend our gracious thanks to those people who have been here for us from Mom's accident, hospitalization and recovery to Dad's illness and loss. There are so many individuals who have touched us through the past few months, that it is difficult to list everyone, but know that we are grateful to each and every one of you for your kindness and generosity toward my parents and family.

Many thanks to the Doctors, Nurses and staff at Pioneer Memorial Hospital, Home Health and Hospice, and physical therapy department; all of you are exceptional caring and patient professionals who not only took care of Bernice and Randy individually, but helped, in turn, guide each of them through their spouse's care. One of the great things about living in a small town with a small hospital is that we are not taken care of by acquaintances but by family.

To the numerous friends who came to visit both Bernice and Randy in the hospital, and those who have come by the house bringing food, flowers, and more, made phone calls to check on Mom, and the St. Patrick's Altar Society, for the wonderful lunch after Dad's service, we are very appreciative. To those who also participated in the funeral service, each of you held a special place in Dad's heart, and he would have been honored to know of your involvement.

It was very overwhelming to see the number of people who attended Dad's service and to know of the countless lives he has impacted over the years. As we each continue on in our individual, and intersecting journeys, keep Randy in your heart and Bernice in your thoughts and prayers.

With Greatest Appreciation
