

Bicyclists get special treat at Heppner stopover

The bicycle riders starting from Springfield, OR and stopping in Heppner for an overnight started their morning ride—after a quick, early breakfast—by posing on the shamrock before they started pedaling on to Wildhorse Resort and Casino on part of our Blue Mountain Century Scenic Bikeway to attend the Governor's Conference on Tourism.

The guests had dinner Thursday night with entertainment by our own Joe Lindsay, who wrote a song about the bike riders. The riders liked the song so much, they even took a video, hoping to share it at the conference.

Many of the cyclists commented how nice and friendly the community was. Heppner Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Sheryll Bates them that "if we can get visitors to come and visit and see for themselves, we can usually count on them coming back again sometime and enjoying our beautiful surroundings and community." -Photo by David Sykes

2016 EO Walk MS a success

Forty-seven people turned out for this year's EO Walk MS, which organizers hailed as a success. -Photo by David Sykes

Forty-six walkers and one runner turned out last weekend for the 18th annual Eastern Oregon Walk MS.

Despite what seemed to be a lower-than-normal turnout, walk committee co-chair Barb Orwick reported that the event has raised a record amount of $13,444 so far, with money continuing to come in.

The event was also attended by Kim Southworth, MSSMC-Oregon Chapter. Kim told the walkers about a new drug, ocrelizumab, which is the first drug to be approved for Progressive MS which could be available in 2017. She also congratulated everyone on the continued success of the EO walk in Heppner.

Volunteers made sure the walkers and runners were well-fed with sandwiches, fruit and beverages.

Local sponsors for the walk this year were Community Bank, Bank of EO, Gregory Smith & Company, Miller & Sons, MCGG, Devin Oil, Inc., Company Frederickson Farming, LLC, All Saints Episcopal and Hope Lutheran Church. Event organizers say they were pleased with the turnout and enthusiasm of this year's event.

"Without the support of our committee, volunteers, those who donated and all the participants of the walk/run, we could not have this special event," commented Orwick. "It was a good year."
