CARD OF THANKS

Many thanks to the Heppner United Methodist Church women for the lovely farewell reception after church on May 22nd. And to Peggy Fishburn for her Memory Hanging so artfully hand stitched; for the beautiful necklace from the church at large; and for the many calls and cards you have made or sent to wish us well. Andrea D. did a great job with the article in the newspaper, which couldn't have been easy. We also appreciated all of your support of our business, Lexington Machine Works, when we were in business and for your support with our volunteer efforts. All of these things will help with the many memories Al and I will have of all of you.
