Obituaries

Casey Kyle Riddle

Casey Kyle Riddle, 25, went home to be with his Lord and Savior on Monday, June 13, 2016. A full State of Oregon Firefighter Honor Guard service at Milton-Freewater Central Middle School will be held Saturday, June 25, at 2 p.m.

He was born in Pendleton, OR on May 22, 1991 to parents R. Charles Riddle and Tina Limbaugh Schroeder. Casey attended grade school in Stanfield, OR and Pendleton, and moved to Athena, OR with his mom and sisters when he was in the fourth grade. He gained another father, grandparents, great-grandparents, aunts, uncles and cousins when his mom remarried in March 2006 to Hans Schroeder of Athena.

Casey had a passion for sports; he competed in football, track and basketball, but his one true love was baseball and his beloved Boston Red Sox. If you needed to know a stat or player, he had a phenomenal historical knowledge of any athlete. He was a lefty and was an awesome pitcher and center fielder for the Weston-McEwen TigerScots. He graduated from Weston-McEwen in 2010.

Casey joined the East Umatilla Rural Fire District shortly after turning 18 at the end of his junior year in high school and his passion for firefighting grew every day. He did attend one term at BMCC in Pendleton but was ready to move forward with his career. When the big oil boom in North Dakota hit he packed up at the age of 20 and moved to the New Town/Williston, ND area, working on the frac sites for more than three years. He was a very dedicated and passionate worker. He finally decided, as things were starting to dry up in North Dakota, to move home in September 2015.

Casey had an infectious smile and lit up any room as soon as he walked in. He often put the needs of others before his own. He loved with all his heart and would be there for his friends or family any time they needed him. He was affectionately known as "Mr. Naughty" after one day his Aunt Cindy Limbaugh Pryor asked what he was doing and he looked at her and said "Bein' naughty!"

Casey was an over-protective brother, and his beautiful niece Ryleigh had her unkie wrapped around her little finger as an infant, when he would often stay up all night walking her around to settle her tummy.

Casey is survived by his parents, Hans and Tina Schroeder of Holdman and Charlie Riddle of Irrigon; siblings Ashleigh with niece Ryleigh and Lexi Schroeder, all of Holdman, Tatjana Schroeder of Beaverton, and Zane Riddle of Irrigon; grandparents Jim and Pati Schroeder of Apple Valley, CA, Bill and Linda Simmons of Colton, Jenny Rae of Spokane, WA, Bob Riddle of Hermiston, and Gary and Bev Limbaugh of Enterprise; and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

He was preceded in death by grandma Karen Riddle of Hermiston; great-grandparents Pat and Ruth Maier (Bampy and Granny) of Salem, OR; and great-grandparents Frank and Helen Guthrie and Wayne and Lela Limbaugh, and great-great-grandma Marie Burdett, all of Enterprise OR, whom were all instrumental in his upbringing.

He will be truly missed by all of his family, friends, co-workers and anyone who met him. A GoFundMe page was created by his Aunt Kay Limbaugh to help the family with expenses: gofundme.com/Casey_Kyle_Riddle.

Disque to address grief support group

The local grief support group will meet at noon on Thursday, July 7, at Sweet Productions in Heppner. The speaker for July meeting will be Robanai Disque.

Disque has been in the medical field since 1976 and has dealt with a wide variety of situations, as well as having many experiences as a young person that prepared her for her profession. She is a registered nurse and previous director of home health and hospice, and will be able to answer many questions for the group.

The informal grief support group meets the first Thursday of every month at noon at Sweet Productions.

Right to Life to meet Monday

The local Right to Life chapter will meet June 27 at 6 p.m. at St. Patrick's Catholic parish hall. The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss plans for the Fourth of July parade.
