

Ione library 'goes for gold' with summer reading program

Ione Public Library's summer reading program kicked off Monday, June 13, with registration at the Traveling Lantern Theatre's "Vladimir Goes for Gold" show, which invited audience members to imagine participating in the Olympics. The free reading program continues Tuesday mornings from 10 a.m. till noon through July 26; children entering kindergarten through sixth grade are invited to attend. -Contributed photo

Local students make OSU honor roll

CORVALLIS, Ore.— Several local students have made the Oregon State University Scholastic Honor Roll for spring term 2016, the university announced this week.

Ione students named to the honor roll were Oskar M. Peterson, sophomore in pre-mechanical engineering, and Mary V. Rietmann, senior in human development and family science, both with a straight-A average, and August H. Peterson, sophomore in agricultural sciences, and Makenna M. Ramos, senior in human development and family science, both with a 3.5 or better GPA.

From Heppner, Maggie K. Collins, senior in agricultural sciences was named to the honor roll with a 3.5 or better GPA.

Maria G. Rodriguez of Boardman, sophomore studying nutrition, and Jessica Nava of Irrigon, a sophomore in biology, were also named to the honor roll.

To be on the honor roll, students must carry at least 12 graded hours of course work.

Penny's Puppets to promote summer reading in South Morrow

SALEM—The Oregon College Savings Plan is bringing puppeteer Penny Walter to two Morrow County libraries next month. Walter will share her Penny's Puppets show at the Oregon Trail Library District's Heppner branch on July 7 at 10 a.m. and at the Ione Public Library on July 26 at 11 a.m.

Penny's Puppets is an "imaginative show that takes the audience on a magical, musical journey packed full of comedy, laughter and audience participation, blurring the boundaries between fantasy and reality to create a fun, make-believe world where anything can happen and usually does."

The performance is part of this year's annual summer reading program, On Your Mark, Get Set, Save! The Oregon College Savings Plan is underwriting a series of free special performances in libraries in communities with a population of 10,000 or less to engage and motivate young readers, while helping these smaller libraries drive traffic and encourage summer reading.

a chance to win a $529 Oregon College Savings Plan account, plus $500 for the winner's library. Up to 15 winners—three from each Oregon congressional district—will be selected in a random drawing at the conclusion of the program. The program is a partnership between the Oregon College Savings Plan, the Oregon State Library and the Oregon Library Association.

The summer reading campaign launched May 1 and will run through Aug. 26. According to the Oregon State Library, 206,425 youth from birth through age 18 signed up for last year's summer reading program at public libraries throughout Oregon; collectively, they read 144,643 books. At least 68,735 achieved their reading goal and completed the 2015 summer reading program.

To participate in the campaign, Oregon parents/guardians/grandparents must first enroll their children in the 2016 summer reading program at their local public library, then fill out a postage-paid entry card, available at the library, and drop it in the mail. All entries must be postmarked by Aug. 26 and received by Sept. 1. Visit www.OregonCollegeSavings.com for official rules and prize details.
