The next concert in Heppner's Music in the Park series will be held on Sunday, July 10, from 5 to 7 p.m. at Heppner City Park on Main Street.

This month, entertainment will be provided by a bluegrass duo known as Slipshod, with Matt Snook on dobro and banjo and Steve Blanchard on guitar and mandolin. Matt and Steve met as members of the Northwest Bluegrass community and became fast friends and picking partners. They have similar musical styles, yet they draw on many different influences like Gordon Lightfoot, Norman Blake, Simon and Garfunkel and Tim O'Brien. They enjoy entertaining audiences with humor and a diverse range of music including originals, familiar melodies and dynamic instrumentals.

"Their mastery of the bluegrass/folk genre is anything but slipshod. This Blanchard-Snook pairing is a wonderful balance of fluid instrumentals, strong vocals and good humor," says Debby Kooy, director of the George Washington Coffee House, George Bluegrass Festival.

Heppner's summer Music in the Park series is funded through the Morrow County Unified Recreation District, and facilitated by the Shared Ministry of Hope Lutheran Church and All Saints Episcopal. Food will be available for purchase to help fund the Shared Ministry's efforts to provide clean water to thirsty people around the world.
